U.S. DIRIGIBLE SEARCHES FOR NUNGESSER PLANE

SOVIET TRADE IN BRITAIN IS NOW ENDED

Delegation in London Suspends Operations While Police Occupy Offices

Joynson-Hicks Promises Commons Early Statement on Raid on Building

London, May 13.—The Russian Trade Delegation and Arcos Limited, the Soviet selling and purchasing agency, have decided to suspend all operations in London while the police are occupying their offices.

Soviet Charge d'Affaires, Rosenholz, takes a most serious view of the raid, which he regards as creating a diplomatic situation, and his protest to Sir Austen Chamberlain, British Foreign Secretary, to-day was in the strongest terms.

Relations Affected. The Associated Press is authoritatively informed the Foreign Office was not connected with the raid in any manner, but it is admitted Anglo-Russian diplomatic relations may be affected in consequence of the action of the police. Whether this effect will be serious depends first upon what Scotland Yard's search discloses, and second, how seriously Soviet Government views the raid.

NOT INSPIRED BY PEKING. The Foreign Office maintains the incident is not connected in any manner with the recent raid on the Soviet Embassy compound in Peking and was not based upon documents or information found in the Peking raid.

It is insisted the action of the police was carried out in the ordinary manner. Scotland Yard, having certain information in its possession, asked for a search warrant and obtained it. The declaration is made at the Foreign Office that Arcos Limited has no diplomatic immunity or special privileges in Great Britain.

The head of the Soviet Trade Delegation enjoys personal diplomatic immunity.

SOVIET PROTEST. Charge Rosenholz's protest, which was handed personally to Sir Austen Chamberlain, asserted the raiders had "violated the most elemental guarantees and demands of common decency."

The police were alleged to have assaulted a Soviet employee who refused to surrender the key to the safe containing the personal papers and cipher codes of M. Chinchuk, head of the Soviet Trade Delegation.

The charge asserted that women as well as men employees had been subjected to personal search, among them his own wife and the wife of the financial attache Shashin.

The personal search of the women was carried out by men police officers, the protest said.

WARRANT REPORTED DELAYED. M. Rosenholz declared the raid began an hour before the search warrant was presented and that nearly the whole premises were searched in the absence of representatives of the institution raided.

FLOOD IS MAKING 60,000 HOMELESS

Waters Spread in Louisiana After Big Mississippi Levee Broken

Baton Rouge, La., May 13.—The frenzied search for the greatest Mississippi River flood in history finally broke down the Big Bend levee to-day at Moreauville, on the Bayou des Glaises.

For the last week more than 1,000 workers had labored day and night to strengthen the embankment. Efforts will now be made if possible to close the breach.

As the muddy waters from the break run through the Atchafalaya Basin into Grand Basin and through to the Gulf, 60,000 more people will be driven from their homes and nearly 1,000,000 acres threatened with inundation.

The new flood also is expected to break down levees on the Atchafalaya River and cause the spreading of that stream's swollen waters over a huge thickly populated region, jeopardizing more than 150,000 people.

EARLY BORDER RULES CHANGE NOW ASKED

Massey Urges U.S. Officials to Relax Restrictions Affecting Workers Crossing Line

Washington Post Sees Threat to Friendship of Canada and United States

Washington, May 13 (Canadian Press).—The Canada-United States border immigration conference probably will be resumed some time to-day. It was adjourned last night after Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian Minister to the United States, and the other Canadian representatives had submitted to the United States State and Labor Departments their argument on principle and on fact in support of the Canadian demand for modification of the United States border regulations.

The regulations recently announced seek to compel Canadians who work across the border and reside in the Dominion to comply with the letter of the United States immigration law.

NO STATEMENT MADE. The proceedings yesterday were shrouded in secrecy by the State Department, as such conferences usually are until they are complete, but it is known Mr. Massey strongly impressed on Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State, James P. Davis, Secretary of Labor, and their staff experts the seriousness of the situation created through the resentment of the average Canadian against the abrupt termination of a tacit agreement whereby Canadians irrespective of birthplace have crossed and recrossed at border points in the course of their daily business.

Hardship is inevitable to border communities, it was pointed out, and implied lack of faith in the Canadian immigration authorities has produced a demand in all parts of the Dominion for similar action by Canada aimed at United States nationals freely entering the Dominion for business purposes.

MAY BE OVERULED. It is rumored in the capital that the Labor Department, which has jurisdiction over immigration, is reluctant to withdraw from its position, taken three weeks ago, when the immigration authorities were asked on June 1, it is possible, however, that the larger considerations of international relations may impel the United States Government to overlook the immigration authorities and make regulations to remove the likelihood of nationalized Canadians already established in positions on the United States side of the border being deprived of their present means of livelihood.

Mr. Massey said to-day he would insist on an early settlement of the question.

TO PREVENT DISSENSION. The Washington Post, which supports the Coolidge administration, says in part in its news columns: "The friendly and neighborly relationship which has existed between the United States and Canada for more than a hundred years is about to be jeopardized by disagreement between the two governments over the control of immigration to the United States over the Canadian border."

Yesterday's conference was held, the newspaper adds, with a view to smoothing out, if possible, the seeds of dissension before they continue to sprout and spread intense bitterness and ill-feeling throughout the Dominion.

C. H. Sharman New Anti-Narcotic Head

Ottawa, May 13.—Col. Charles H. Sharman, C.M.G., O.B.E., of the Department of Agriculture, has been appointed chief of the narcotic division of the Department of Health.

The post involves the detection and suppression of the illicit traffic in narcotic drugs.

RIVER DYKES IN MANITOBA BROKEN

Waters of Assiniboine Menace Several Small Towns on Prairie

Winnipeg, May 13.—Dykes hastily thrown up around flood-menaced settlements flanking the swollen Assiniboine River in southern Manitoba were giving way to-day at a number of points before the onrush of the current. The safety of several small towns in the direction of White Plains was endangered as the water began to seep through breaks in the barrier.

More than 400 acres already are under water at Iberville. Work is now being rushed on a second line of defence a mile back from the river bank near St. Paul and Marquette, where the river is reported to be rising rapidly.

CITY REDUCES ITS BANK LOAN BY $350,000

Annual Loan By-law Will Ask For Credit of $400,000 Instead of $750,000

Hearty Support by Ratepayers of Prepaid Tax Plan is Given Credit

As one indication of the steady march of affairs which has led to improved conditions generally throughout Victoria in the last few years, the city will cut its authorized bank loan by $350,000 this year, reducing the annual loan by-law from $750,000 to $400,000.

Authority to present the by-law to the council on Monday for the lesser sum was secured by D. A. Macdonald, City Controller, from the Mayor to-day.

Last year the city borrowed less than for many years previously, with $278,000 as the total borrowings from the bank, not more than $195,000 of which was outstanding at any one time, explained Mr. Macdonald.

The loan was paid off earlier in the year, also, with $1,722 as the amount paid by the city to the bank in interest, the lowest sum paid out under that head in twenty years.

VOLUNTARY TAX SYSTEM. The rapidly increasing support to the voluntary system of prepaid tax collection is credited for the city's ability to finance the early months of the year without calling on the banks. A few years ago sums up to $1,000,000 were drawn from the bank to finance the city in the first half of the year, and on which considerable sums were paid in interest.

Not only has the amount drawn from the banks under this head dwindled, but loans advanced to the city have been at lesser interest rates than for many years.

Last year the prepaid tax plan had 1,400 subscribers for the whole of the year, these ratepayers earning $14,000 in rebates by way of interest. This year to date over $300,000 has been paid into the city treasury in advance of the date of tax collection, contributed by 1,320 subscribers in the first four months of the year.

Prepaid sums are received at any time and in any amount up to the full amount of the tax account, up to August 20, or one month prior to the date of tax collection.

The feature of support accorded to the plan this year lies in the large number of ratepayers now joining in under the plan, and helping to swell the numbers who have been paying their tax accounts ahead in this manner for the last four years.

The Victoria system has drawn considerable attention in Canadian municipal circles, and Edwin C. Smith, city treasurer, the originator of the scheme, has been asked to prepare a paper on the subject for the U.S. National Association of Commissioners for their annual convention.

JOSIAH WOOD DIED IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Josiah Wood was born in Sackville, N.B., April 18, 1843. He was educated at the public schools and Mount Allison University, taking the degrees B.A. in 1863 and M.A. in 1866. In 1891 the degree of D.C.L. was conferred on him.

He had extensive investments, being a director of the Record Foundry Company and a director of the Eastern Trust Company. He was also interested in farming and stock raising.

In 1912 he resigned his seat in the Senate and was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick. After laying down the office in July, 1917, he lived in retirement.

$5,000 REWARD OFFERED FOR FINDING OF NUNGESSER PLANE

Washington, May 13.—Raymond Ortel, United States sponsor of the $25,000 New York-Paris flight prize, has cabled from Paris an offer of $5,000 reward for any aviator who discovers either of the missing French fliers, Captains Nungesser and Coli, or traces of their aeroplane, the United States Commerce Department announced to-day.

Above is a picture of the aeroplane in which Captains Nungesser and Coli left Paris at 5.19 a.m. last Sunday for a non-stop flight to New York, and which is now the object of a search in Newfoundland and the waters south of that island.

PROPOSE PEACE TABLE. Erection of a Confederation tablet in the Peace Arch at Blaine, on the United States boundary, is proposed by the committee in charge of the Jubilee celebration in Vancouver as a fitting and permanent reminder of the importance of the occasion to be celebrated. This proposal has been submitted by the Vancouver committee to the Government, which has it under consideration.

Tenders are being called immediately by the C.N.R. for the construction of oil tanks to bring to Victoria business from the fish reduction plants of the West Coast.

C. P. W. Schwengers, president, reported at the meeting of the directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce this afternoon. Work is expected to start in the next ten days. Railroad representatives were also coming to Victoria to investigate the inter-switching of C.N.R. and C.P.R. cars and he believed there was every indication that the inter-switching would be put into operation without the Chamber being forced to apply to the Railway Commission.

PORT ALBERNI MAYOR CHOSEN BY ACCLAMATION

New Mayor, Alderman and Police Commissioner Placed in Office

Special to The Times. Port Alberni, May 13.—Resignation of Mayor C. C. Durant of Port Alberni, which recently created a vacancy in that office, resulted in nominations being called on Monday last and Alderman Aubrey Sanders was declared elected by acclamation to fill the vacant seat.

In taking office the new mayor was forced to resign as alderman and police commissioner, thus necessitating nominations for men to fill both these posts.

Theodore Catman was the only nominee for alderman to fill the vacant post and John Z. Blower took the seat on the police board.

Ex-Mayor Durant has been transferred to Victoria in the Provincial Government service.

It is expected the unloading will be completed some time to-night.

The seals were broken under a direction of Canadian customs officials, but there were no official representatives of the United States Government present, it is said.

ATLANTIC FLIGHT STARTS SUNDAY

Expected Chamberlin and Bertaud Will Leave New York Then For Paris

Curtiss Field, New York, May 13.—The weather on the Atlantic is so unfavorable that the hop-off of Clarence Chamberlin and Lloyd Bertaud in their Bellanca monoplane "Columbia" for a non-stop flight from New York to Paris, planned for to-morrow morning, in all likelihood will be postponed till early Sunday morning.

THREE PLANES TUNED UP. New York, May 13.—Three United States planes slated for non-stop flights to Paris were berthed on Long Island flying fields to-day and indications were that two of them at least would find themselves in a race to be the first to cross.

At Curtiss Field was the Bellanca monoplane "Columbia," in which Clarence Chamberlin and Lloyd Bertaud had hoped to take off early this morning until unfavorable weather reports caused them to decide upon postponement. They expect now to get away not later than Sunday morning.

Beside it was the Ryan single-seater monoplane "The Spirit of St. Louis," in which Charles Lindbergh flew alone from San Diego, Calif., in two days, preparatory to a flight to France which may now develop into a race with the Bellanca.

BYRD DELAYS START. At Roosevelt Field was the Fokker monoplane "America," sent over from Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., last night for the flight of Commander Richard Byrd. This flight is to be postponed, however, until the fate of the missing French fliers, Nungesser and Coli, is determined and until Byrd has recovered from a fracture of one wrist suffered during a test flight.

"America" still has several days of testing before it can be pronounced fit for service.

NO FRIDAY FLIGHT. Although regret was expressed in many quarters that the Bellanca fliers had not been able to get off to-day, it was expected to get off to-day.

ALASKA YOUTH IS WINNER OF $33,000

E. Kehoe Draws Lucky Ticket in Nenana River Ice Break-up Pool

Fairbanks, Alaska, May 13.—Friday the thirteenth was a lucky day for Edward Kehoe, nineteen of Fairbanks. He is the winner of the Nenana Ice Pool, which this year totaled $137,000, the largest in history. Of this amount, Kehoe probably will receive $33,000.

The ice in the Nenana River started to move at 6.43 this morning. It was the first time in the history of the pool the prize had not been divided by two persons guessing the moment when the ice would break up.

The breakup was the latest in the year since the pool was organized in 1917. In previous years the break-up occurred between April 26 and May 12.

The pool closed this year on April 16, four days earlier than previously. Many thousands of tickets were sold.

Auto Crash Took Three Men's Lives. Vancouver, May 13.—George Smart, passenger in an automobile that collided with a street car on April 30 on Main Street here, died this morning. His was the third death resulting from the accident.

BIG AIRSHIP ON CRUISE HUNTS FRENCH AIRMEN

Dirigible Los Angeles, Flying North Along Atlantic Coast From Lakehurst, N.J., Keeps Lookout for Nungesser and Coli; Aircraft May Be Sent as Far North as Coast of Labrador to Carry on Search

New York, May 13.—The United States navy dirigible Los Angeles left its station at Lakehurst, N.J., this morning on a training cruise along the Atlantic Coast, during which a close watch will be kept for possible trace of Capt. Nungesser and Capt. Coli, missing French transatlantic aviators.

Washington, May 13.—The feasibility of sending the United States dirigible Los Angeles as far north as the coast of Labrador in search of the missing French fliers, Nungesser and Coli, was taken under consideration to-day by the Navy Department.

President Coolidge to-day sent a message to President Doumergue of France expressing the hope Nungesser and Coli would be found and assuring France the United States Government would do everything "humanly possible" in the search for them.

NO REPORTS YET. New York, May 13.—Intensive search on sea and land still has brought no tidings of the French aviators, Capt. Nungesser and Coli, now four full days overdue at New York on their flight from Paris.

Supporting the belief that the missing airmen may be found at some isolated spot in the northeastern part of the continent, United States naval hydrographers express the theory that if the fliers are alive they are probably somewhere in Labrador.

The belief that some densely wooded area may hold the secret of the lost "White Bird" was based by hydrographers on the assumption that the plane's motor had no trouble, the wind took the aviators to the north of Newfoundland and that the machine's altimeter saved them from collision with icebergs or land obstructions.

SHIP SENT TO SEARCH. St. Johns, Nfld., May 13.—The Governor of St. Pierre to-day informed Sir William Horwood, administrator of Newfoundland in the absence of Governor Sir William Allard, that he was sending a ship to search Placentia Bay and neighboring waters for the French airmen Nungesser and Coli, who left Paris last Sunday morning for New York.

The Newfoundland Government has placed the telegraph service at the disposal of those engaged in the search and has promised to aid the hunt in every possible way.

S. COTTON'S OPINION. Major Sidney Cotton, United States aviator, now in Detroit, and who is familiar with flying conditions in Newfoundland, states in a message to Premier Monroe that if the Harbor Grace reports regarding the hearing of the plane over there are correct it would seem likely that the plane had come down on the western part of the island, toward Port aux Basques.

WEATHER HINDERS SEARCH. Ottawa, May 13.—Government inquiries to radio stations and patrol boats at the coast and in the waters along the North Atlantic seaboard have brought no hint of the fate of the missing French transatlantic airmen, Nungesser and Coli.

Court Asked to Name Guardian For Lorraine Snyder

New York, May 13.—The New York American says Warren Snyder, brother of Albert Snyder, slain magazine art editor, has retained a lawyer to seek appointment of a guardian who is not a member of Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder's family.

The petition, it is said, will be filed in the surrogate's court at once. Mrs. Snyder, who is the mother of Mrs. Josephine Brown, mother of Mrs. Snyder, said she would oppose Snyder's petition and seek guardianship of the child herself.

Mrs. Snyder and Henry Judd Gray were sentenced to-day to die in the electric chair during the week of June 20 for the murder of Albert Snyder. Appeals are to be taken.

NORTHERN CHINESE MOVING ON HANKOW

Gen. Yeng's Troops, Having Captured Ichang, Traveling Down Yangtze River

Shanghai, May 13.—Wireless dispatches from Hankow say the situation there has become worse since the news leaked out that troops of the Northern Chinese general, Yeng Sen, had captured Ichang and were moving down the river toward Hankow.

Thousands of middle-class Chinese, unable to leave the city, are reported to have taken refuge in the Japanese concession, anticipating grave trouble in Hankow soon.

The Nationalists are said to have seized all the flour in the native city for their troops on the Honan front. The price of flour consequently has risen twenty-five per cent. Rice is also becoming scarcer daily.

Weather conditions are handicapping the search, which was redoubled yesterday following reports that an aeroplane had been heard in the vicinity of Grace Harbor, Nfld., Monday morning. The ice patrol steamer Milukia's wireless report states the vicinity in the vicinity of St. Paul's Island has been poor because of a heavy fog. The Milukia and her sister ship, the Montcalm, have been ordered to stop all "steaming" flying in the coastal and transatlantic trade routes and to ask that a close watch be kept for the missing airman.

REPORTS ASKED

Government radio stations scattered along the coast have been asked to flash any information that may be secured.

There will be no slackening in the efforts to find the airman. Government officials still hold out some hope that the flyers were picked up by a vessel unable to report by wireless, or have made land at some remote point.

REPORT UNCONFIRMED

St. John's, Nfld., May 13.—In response to numerous messages sent throughout Newfoundland asking for information of the French airman, Captains Nungesser and Coli, the Minister of Posts has received a report from Sound Island, Placentia Bay, stating that Fletcher Back of that place, heard a sound like that made by an aeroplane last Monday about noon. A dense fog prevailed at the time. It was finally decided, however, to confirm the report. A newspaper was previously reported having been heard passing over the town of Placentia, but this was denied from Placentia yesterday.

ATLANTIC FLIGHT TO START SUNDAY

this morning as they had expected, the superstitious breathed a sigh of relief when it was finally decided that none of the flights was to be begun on "Black Friday."

LINDBERGH IS CONFIDENT

Chamberlin and Bertaud now plan to hop off not later than Sunday morning and it was generally believed to-day Lindbergh would be starting at almost the same hour, although he was non-committal as to his plans. Slightly shy, this 25-year-old pilot, who had flown all one night from San Diego, then taken a few hours sleep in St. Louis and flown to New York, was asked whether it would be possible for him to start nearly forty hours of transatlantic flight without further rest and he grinned and said: "All I need is a couple of hours of sleep and I'll be ready to go."

The Charge characterized the raid, which was still in progress to-day, as a "flagrant violation of the Trade Agreement of 1921," and maintained that M. Chinchuk, an official agent of the Soviet Union, enjoyed all the rights and immunities of the other foreign powers in Britain.

The protest concluded: "I have informed my Government of all that has occurred, but while awaiting its decision and instructions, I consider it my duty to protest most emphatically against a violation of the obligations undertaken by the British Government in accord-

MR. NICHOL HONORED

THE DECORATION OF THE LEGION of Honor never has been lightly given. Instituted by the great Napoleon as a means of rewarding conspicuous merit, it has been kept jealousy free from such influences, intrigues and associations as might cheapen it as many other decorations have been cheapened. Its bestowal upon Mr. W. C. Nichol shows that the French Government has quickly caught the vision and purpose of the donor in providing courses for young British Columbians in the great university in Paris. While Mr. Nichol's immediate object is the promotion of a more intimate understanding of France on the part of this section of Canada, he has in view a broader objective and one that is directly related to Canada's welfare.

One of the Dominion's most urgent needs is the establishment of a closer bond of unity between the English-speaking and French-speaking citizens of this country. The young people who, through Mr. Nichol's munificence, will be enabled to study in Paris will realize that while their fellow-citizens of Quebec live under Canadian institutions, they have behind them a splendid heritage and tradition based upon the ancient and imposing history and unsurpassed culture of France. They will be able to appreciate more sympathetically the point of view of the people of Quebec and to transmit that appreciation to the youth of this Province. All this tends to promote Canadian unity, in the cause of which Mr. Nichol always has taken an active, patriotic interest. This is the special significance underlying the bestowal by France upon the donor of these scholarships of one of its most highly-cherished honors.

TRANQUILLE

NOT MANY YEARS AGO THE PEOPLE of Kamloops were horrified when it was suggested that a sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis be erected at Tranquille—eight miles away. Many were convinced that such a project would be a serious blow to the community. Some even seemed to imagine that it would not be long before practically everybody would be suffering from the dreaded malady through contact with patients. But all this long since has passed away. Education in these matters has had its effect and modern Kamloops regards the institution at Tranquille as one of its best "industries." We can imagine the howl that would go up to high heaven if the provincial Government suggested closing it down and establishing a similar organization elsewhere.

Tranquille is not only not shunned; it long has been regarded as a beauty spot, a "sight" to show visitors, something of which to be proud. We are reminded of this by a reference which The Kamloops Telegram makes to the many changes, both from the scenic and the utilitarian standpoints, which have taken place since the Government took over the institution and manifested its practical sympathy with the work that is being done there. We quote from our Interior contemporary:

Tranquille is appropriately named. To visit its beautiful and restful environs, coming off the dusty road, is to reach an oasis in the dry belt desert and color after grey skies and earth. Perhaps the grounds at the sanatorium never looked so attractive as at present; besides it is spring, the most attractive of the seasons. This is the time of year to visit Tranquille, to renew acquaintanceships and friendships, to consider the extraordinary steps that have been taken to combat that disease which the "san" undoubtedly does alleviate and arrest.

There are changes out there this spring, one of the chief being the added beauty of its gardening. Under the cunning hand of Alex. Greig waste places have been made to bloom and new departures have sprung up of striking charm.

Again a wonderful asset has been acquired by the work of the provincial Government, under Major Taylor, district engineer. We refer to the gravity domestic water supply, brought from Tranquille Creek. This is a most successful undertaking and provides, besides a greater abundance of purer water, a fire protection that the "san" greatly required.

Few people select a visit to a hospital of any kind as a tonic for frayed nerves or a fit of the blues; but it would be difficult to find a more cheerful batch of patients than those who are struggling for health—many of them aware that they are waging an unequal fight—at the provincial Government's sanatorium at Tranquille. Much of this cheerfulness has been produced by their surroundings, the friendly relations between the village and the neighboring city, and by the conversion of the sandy desert into green pastures. A visit to the institution would be an inspiration for many people.

ON THE WRONG TRACK

DR. TOLMIE AND HIS CONSERVATIVE friends make a point of including in every speech they deliver an assurance that if the people of this Province will elect a Conservative government when they are next appealed to, a policy will be formulated that will create a new inducement to the youth of British Columbia to remain here. Nobody has been let into the secret as to what sort of a panacea will be produced or how they propose to produce it.

They content themselves with their efforts to leave an impression on the minds of the electors that some sort of collusion has been going on between the present administration and the neighboring republic which is going to strip British Columbia of all its natural resources and eventually drain most of the population from the Province.

While these veiled inferences that British Columbia is going to the dogs are being dropped by the Conservative leader and his supporters, Conservative newspapers—notably that staunch friend of the Conservative Party, The Vancouver Daily Province—are running news items every day which prove in the most conclusive manner possible that this part of Canada, and the same can be said of the rest of it, has been doing and continues to do very well indeed. Why does Dr. Tolmie keep up the silly fiction? Why does he say that capital is being frightened away from British Columbia because it is not properly treated by the present administration? Does he think he is advertising this Province when he makes statements of this character? It would be much better were the Conservative leader to borrow the slogan of the British Columbia Products Bureau: "Buy British Columbia Products and Make a Job for your Boy in B.C." This is business and not political advice. It is sound, too, and, if taken, still greater prosperity would soon belong to this Province.

ARE YOU AFRAID OF '13'?

ALTHOUGH THE BEACONS OF science have never so brilliantly illuminated the world as at present, human intelligence still cherishes some of its dark places. This says The Manchester Guardian, is the moral to be drawn from the news that the London and Northeastern Railway Company has decided to remove the number "thirteen" from its sleeping cars. No reasonable explanation has been given for the course taken, or why "thirteen" should be considered unlucky, the company contenting itself with the observation that it "abolishes the number out of deference to the prejudice of its travelers." The Guardian goes on:

One of the few really celebrated legends into which thirteen enters, suggests a numeral of definitely auspicious associations—the tale that a sentry at Windsor, accused of sleeping at his post, once saved his life by asserting that he heard a clock strike thirteen at midnight, and proving that, by a mechanical error, it did in fact strike that impossible hour on the night in question, was at once widely repeated throughout the whole country and should have done something to rehabilitate thirteen in the estimation of the simple. Instead of that, the baleful tradition appears to have strengthened at table, which was the time, once it was "thirtened" with the passage of particularly disastrous combination; now, with many people, it is thirteen anywhere and in all circumstances—except in the case of farmers and publishers, who find that their own interests are best served by reckoning thirteen to the dozen.

The thirteen superstition is not without company. Those who would shun a sleeping berth with that number as they would the plauds no doubt would shudder at the crossing of knives, the spilling of salt, or the breaking of a mirror. Some industrious person might find it an interesting study to try and discover the origin of these peculiar beliefs. He might also let us know why some people turn their money over at the sight of a new moon, and why it should be considered unlucky to walk under a ladder.

FARMS AND CITIES

From The Adelaide Chronicle

The continued drift of people from the rural districts to the cities and towns suggests one of the difficulties which will have to be faced in carrying out a policy of immigration. We bring the people here, and very wisely associate land settlement schemes with the introduction of population, but how are the newcomers placed upon the land to be kept there? Success can only be expected if Government policies duly recognize the overwhelming importance of our agricultural and pastoral interests and place them on such a footing that they will have attractions strong enough to overcome the peculiar lure of the cities. The well-established legislative and administrative bias in favor of the centres of population stands badly in need of correction.

Queer Quirks of Nature

By ARTHUR N. PACK

Everyone has heard of the quivering aspen. It has appeared frequently in an important tree character in western stories, and poets have immortalized it by calling it a shivering lady with a silvery dress.

Those who have not heard of it in either of these connections may recall it as the roadside tree that was forever turning its leaves over, flashing them white in the lightest Summer breeze, and causing horses to take fright and shy violently, in the old days when horses were driven on the roads.

The leaves of the aspen trees are hung on long slender stems, and the faintest wind is sufficient to set them trembling in a dainty leaf dance. In Autumn the leaves turn from silvery-green to gold, adding immeasurably to the beauty of the fall woods.

If you do not recall the aspen tree you may know it as the poplar, for it goes by that name over much of its range.

Man has found but few uses for it, owing to the softness of the wood, but in the wilderness it plays an important role on the menu of many creatures.

Rabbits and deer feed on the buds and tender twigs during the Winter months and grouse fly up among the branches and gather the sticky buds when deep snow covers all other food.

More than any other animal, however, the beaver depends on the aspen for his Winter diet. He sinks sections of it in his pond and lives all Winter long on the tender bark.

A THOUGHT

Do You Mean What You Say?

'AN OLD GEEZER'

"AN OLD GEEZER"

Disrespectful children are likely to speak of any older person as an "old geezer." It is a term of derision applied to elderly persons. Any grotesque or character is a "geezer." It is a dialect pronunciation of "geezer" meaning "one who guesses himself," a masquerader of manner. It comes from the word "guise" meaning shape or, as a verb, to shape, assimilate, disguise, attire in a fantastic manner.

DOCTOR'S BLESSING

To the Editor:—In his public utterances since returning to the coast, Dr. E. F. Tolmie has expressed approval of the action of Messrs. Twigg, Pooley and their supporters in the Provincial Legislature in bringing forward in the House the charges relating to Earlrow and Gauchier. Mr. Reginald Hayward, one of Dr. Tolmie's supporters, on the other hand, recently stated that he considered dealings of this type to be dirty political business. This statement of Mr. Hayward had no other

Veteran Poet Gives Volume to Local Authors' Society

The May meeting of the Victoria and Islands branch, Canadian Authors' Association, was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carmichael, St. Ann's Street, Oak Bay, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The main feature of the evening was a presentation to the local branch of the poetic works, "Tecumseh," and other poems, and memoirs of Dr. Charles Blair, Canada's oldest living poet, who has made his home in Victoria for the last two years. The volume, which is one of a series "Master Works of Canadian Authors," is a de luxe edition issued by the Radisson Society of Canada, and is one of the first twenty-four copies from the press. It is thus inscribed by John W. Garvin, and the inscription by Dr. Blair is as follows:

"To the Island branch Canadian Authors' Association in appreciation of many kindnesses."

This gift is greatly appreciated by the branch and a resolution of thanks to Dr. Blair was unanimously passed.

Mr. Donald A. Fraser read an amusing article from "The Writer," entitled "Confessions of a Contributor," by M. S. Mansfield, and Mr. Carmichael gave the very interesting history of an old volume, "The Holy State," published in London in 1684, and dealing with the Crusades. This volume was in circulation through a lending library in 1781. The Royton

The "Old-fashioned" part of the programme, Donald A. Fraser sang and played an original song; both music and words of his own composition, entitled "Popple," which was first written to be sung by the Chinese children of his class, and in which they did very well in one of the school entertainments. Mrs. Wallace Fraser also contributed some piano selections.

Supper was served in the dining-room which was beautifully arranged with white broom and pale pink and yellow tulips. Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. Ebbes-Canavan pouring tea and coffee. A vote of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael for a very enjoyable evening was voiced by the entire assembly.

of "The Sea Tiger." Milton Sills'

Instead of the cameras being on the ground, or mounted on a platform, or "parallel," as they are called, a swinging crane, attached to the roof of the vast studio, and carrying a platform with Director John Francis Dillon and cameramen, was projected down into the scene from above, and moved about just above the heads of the actors and actresses during the festival. Its effect is unusual.

the Columbia Theatre are delighted to see the "Tinker Bell girl" in what might be termed a "full-sized" role.

Miss Faire won a beauty contest
while a New York City school girl.
When she arrived in Hollywood to begin her career before the camera she was under the jurisdiction of the school department and it was necessary for her to have a tutor on the sets where she worked.

Her first outstanding success was in Fox Film's version of "Monte Cristo." Her next big success was in "Romance Raucous."

"FOXY GRANDPA" IS
LAUGHABLE FARCE

Coliseum audiences are laughing at Joe Evans' side-splitting comedy
"Foxy Grandpa," which is experiencing one of the best runs of the season.
"Love's Greatest Mistake" and
"The Song and Dance Man" are the screen attractions at the Coliseum this week.

JOHN DREW LOST
FRIEND IN DISASTER

Was Appearing in Pacific
Northwest When Lusitania
Sank

John Drew's appearance on Monday evening, May 23, at the Royal, the first of George C. Tyler's sixteen stars in "Trelawny of the Wells" may revive to Victoria theatre-goers the memory of his last appearance in the Pacific Northwest, in "Rosemary," more than twelve years ago. During that tour, while appearing in Anaconda, Montana, the first word was received that the "Lusitania" had been sunk. Knowing that his best friend and for more than twenty years, his manager, Charles Frohman, was on that liner, he vainly sought word of the rescued until he got to Everett, Washington. There, with his company manager, Mr. Drew sat up throughout the night listening to the ticking of a little news telegraph instrument, anxious to welcome the tidings of Frohman's safety. In the morning, word finally came that his friend and manager was among those lost in the terrible catastrophe.

When George C. Tyler assembled his present production of "Trelawny of the Wells," with John Drew to head the cast that appears at the Royal for a single performance on Monday evening, May 23, beginning at 8 o'clock promptly, Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, the author, cabled him from England as follows:

"Please accept my thanks my dear
Mr. Tyler for your excellent production of Trelawny and convey to my old friend John Drew and the members of your splendid cast the greetings of its author."—Arthur Pinero.

URGE CREMATORIUM
FOR CITY CEMETERY

Deputation Waits on Cemetery
Board, But no Funds
Available

A deputation from the recently-formed Cremation Society met the Cemetery Board recently to discuss ways and means for building a cre-matorium at the Saanich Cemetery, Royal Oak. The Cemetery Board is in favor of building a crematorium on land set apart for the purpose, but is unable at the present time to finance the building at a cost of $4,000 including the incinerator.

It was suggested that the Cremation Society supply the necessary money and a grant of land would be leased for the purpose.

As the personal guests of Dr. J. S.

on Little Saanich Mountain, last night.

Due to the fact that the sky was too cloudy for star-gazing, Dr. Plas-

SURPLUS OF $1,643
MADE AT FESTIVAL

President J. G. Brown Praises
Co-operation Leading to Success; Officers Elected

John G. Brown, who presided at the second annual meeting of the Victoria Musical Festival Association held at the City Hall Wednesday night, announced that the recent festival was an unqualified success, musically and financially.

During his experience of over forty years in local affairs, he said, he had never witnessed such a non-sectional and magnificent community effort as prevailed throughout the three-day festival.

There was co-operation on all sides, and it redounded to the honor and glory of the city. He thanked all the officers of the association in their faithful work, and energetic efforts, and that their first united endeavor and experiences would tend for an even greater and better effort in next year's festival.

Recording Secretary Mrs. Arthur
Walsh, Corresponding Secretary
Gordon Holcroft, and Treasurer Mrs.
J. O. Cameron, each read reports.
The latter, in her report of the financial side of the association, stated that the receipts nearly totaled $4,000, the expenditures were over $2,000,
and that the balance in the bank
amounted to $1,643.

At the conclusion of the business of the first year the election of officers for the coming year was then preceded with the following receiving election: President, J. G. Brown; first vice-president, J. C. M. Kelch;

second vice-president, George Watson (in the place of School Trustee George Jay, who felt he would not be able to give the attention the association merited); third vice-president, Harold Beckwith; treasurer,
Austin Curtis; recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur Walsh; corresponding secretary, Gordon Holcroft, and the executive committee, Davis Morgan,
Frederic King, Mrs. J. O. Cameron,
Jackson Hanley, Mrs. William Jameson, Frederick Waddington, Major Bullock-Webster, Mrs. Radborne and
F. C. T. Wickett.

Votes of thanks were unanimously passed to last year's officers, and among some recommendations to the incoming officers was the establishment of a paid secretary, in view of the tremendous amount of work that had to be accomplished during the year. During the evening the special cup, donated by local supporters, was presented to Leighton Winter,
the trophy to be his "as an absolute gift."

The membership of the association now number over 450.

SIXTEENTH TO HAVE SUMMER CAMP

Arrangements Made For Combined Machine and Lewis Gun Practices

Arrangements are under way for a Summer camp of the Canadian Scottish Regiment. The Highland unit will march into camp on the evening of June 10 and will remain under canvas until Sunday evening, July 3. The location of the camp has not been decided, but it is probable that it will be on the old rifle range at Clover Point in order that the sixteenth may be assembled in a place convenient to take part in the programme arranged for the celebration of the Jubilee of Confederation.

For the first time since the war the 11th Machine Gun Battalion and the 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, will carry on a combined demonstration of machine gun and Lewis gun firing at Healy's Range on May 14 and 15. The firing will be under the direction of Capt.
Hadley of the 11th Machine Gun Battalion and Capt. Henson, musketry officer of the Canadian Scottish.

The practice with these modern weapons will be conducted with failing plates as the targets.

Recruits will also fire grouping practice with the rifle at 100 yards

SNYDER-GRAY DEATH SENTENCE IMPOSED

Week of June 20 Set by New York Judge; Appeals to Be Made

Queen's County Courthouse, New York, May 13.—Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray to-day were sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison during the week of June 20 for the murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband, Albert Snyder, magazine art editor.

Prior to the imposition of the sentence, counsel for both Gray and Mrs. Snyder made motions asking that the verdict be set aside. Justice Scudder denied the motions. Neither defendant showed any emotion as Justice Scudder pronounced sentence. Mrs. Snyder was dressed in black, the same costume she wore during the trial. A matron stood on each side of her, but beyond a clasp and unclasping of her hands, she did not show the strain.

Gray's figure was tense. He stood about five feet from Mrs. Snyder, but neither looked at the other. Neither Gray nor Mrs. Snyder replied when the clerk of the court asked if they had anything to say as to why sentence should not be imposed.

The attorneys for both said the defendants had "nothing to say at this time."

APPEALS TO BE TAKEN

Appeals from the sentence are contemplated. These will be made direct to the Court of Appeals, as is provided by law in cases of death penalties.

Court officials said Mrs. Snyder and Gray would be taken to Sing Sing next Monday.

Counsel for Gray denied reports that Gray had asked the privilege of saying good-bye to Mrs. Snyder. Jail attendants quoted him as saying he "wanted only to set her in Heaven."

HABEAS CORPUS EFFORT TO PREVENT DEPORTATION ORDER

Vancouver, May 13.—For nearly two years Mrs. Lee Chow Ying here has fought deportation to China, and the latest development in the case came yesterday when Stuart Henderson applied in the Supreme Court to Chief Justice Hunter for a writ of habeas corpus.

When the woman arrived at Victoria on the liner Empress of Asia, July 16, 1925, she alleged she had been born in that city on August 23, 1905, but S. N. Reid, controller of Chinese immigration, disbelieved her, decided she was not the same girl whose birth was recorded as having occurred in Victoria almost twenty years previously, and ordered her to be deported.

Belgian Steel Cutting Into U.S.

New York, May 13.—Delivery of Belgian steel bars on the Pacific Coast at prices well under the price of the mills in that section and delivery of other foreign steel products at South Atlantic ports, indicates that American steel makers are again feeling foreign competition.

How Women

Now keep fresh, charming under hygienic handicap—new way provides true security—discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND Registered Nurse

THE uncertainty and insecurity of the old-time "sanitary pad" has been ended. Scientific protection now supplies it.

Wear sheer gowns, keep up with social and business requirements, at all times... without handicap.

"KOTEX" is a new and remarkable way... five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

✓ You discard it like tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time. Thus ending all fear of offending.

You get it at any drug or department store, simply by saying "KOTEX". There's only one... only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex. Women ask for it without hesitancy.

Comes 12 in a package. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk. Try Kotex.

STORMY SCENE WHEN WOMEN SEEK TO REMOVE BAN

Labor Women by 584 to 71 Ask Removal of Birth Control Prohibition

London, May 12 (Canadian Press Cable)—The Labor women of Britain have joined with their Liberal sisters in favoring the removal of prohibition of birth control information.

After a stormy debate, the national convention of Labor women at Huddersfield has carried a resolution calling for the lifting of the ban by the Ministry of Health against birth control information—being given at public clinics. The resolution was carried by 584 votes to 71 against.

After several speakers had advanced arguments, favoring the resolution, Miss Quinn, a stout opponent of birth control, raised an angry scene.

She declared the measure was a complete capitulation to capitalism, the philosophy of cowardice and the promise of despatch.

Dr. Marion Phillips, who was in the chair, quelled the opposition by shouting: "This scene is a disgrace to you. It is merely a display of violence. You can surely exercise some self-control."

Mr. W. R. Langdon of the Uplands left on Wednesday for Montreal where he will spend a few days before proceeding to Quebec to attend the national handicrafts and folk song festival.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O'Meara, George Road West, have as their guests their grand-daughter, Miss Camille Taylor of New Westminster and their grandson, Master George O'Meara of Oakland, California.

Mr. W. G. Wood has returned to Victoria from Saturna Island where he has been visiting as the guest of friends and will spend a few days here prior to returning to Chetumal.

Mrs. L. A. Genge entertained with three tables of bridge this afternoon at her home on Vancouver Street in honor of Mrs. John Glasco of Winnipeg, and at the tea-hour additional guests were present. An artistic commission of mason tulips and blue iris formed the floral decoration in the dining-room, while rose tulips and blue iris were used to enhance the drawing-room.

A miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Edna Marks, at her home on Fernwood Road, on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Dorothy Novis, a popular bride-elect. The decorations were daintily carried out in pink and green, pink tulips and forget-me-nots being artistically arranged in the rooms to further the color scheme. The numerous gifts were concealed in a large pink and green tulip with streamers and handles of satin ribbon to match and were presented to the bride-to-be by little Dorothy Mercer. STORMY SCENE WHEN WOMEN SEEK TO REMOVE BAN

Labor Women by 584 to 71 Ask Removal of Birth Control Prohibition

London, May 12 (Canadian Press Cable)—The Labor women of Britain have joined with their Liberal sisters in favoring the removal of prohibition of birth control information.

After a stormy debate, the national convention of Labor women at Huddersfield has carried a resolution calling for the lifting of the ban by the Ministry of Health against birth control information—being given at public clinics. The resolution was carried by 584 votes to 71 against.

After several speakers had advanced arguments, favoring the resolution, Miss Quinn, a stout opponent of birth control, raised an angry scene.

She declared the measure was a complete capitulation to capitalism, the philosophy of cowardice and the promise of despatch.

Dr. Marion Phillips, who was in the chair, quelled the opposition by shouting: "This scene is a disgrace to you. It is merely a display of violence. You can surely exercise some self-control."

Mr. W. R. Langdon of the Uplands left on Wednesday for Montreal where he will spend a few days before proceeding to Quebec to attend the national handicrafts and folk song festival.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O'Meara, George Road West, have as their guests their grand-daughter, Miss Camille Taylor of New Westminster and their grandson, Master George O'Meara of Oakland, California.

Mr. W. G. Wood has returned to Victoria from Saturna Island where he has been visiting as the guest of friends and will spend a few days here prior to returning to Chetumal.

ORGANIZATIONS ARE HELPING DISABLED

New Organization Would Cause Overlapping Chamber Told

While there are no service men included among the unemployed citizens of Victoria, it is already an enormous amount of machinery for the relief of distress which, where necessary, is generously added to, H. Crisford reported to the directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce this afternoon.

After attending the recent conference of business men and representatives of service and other organizations called to consider a problem of unemployed disabled veterans, Mr. Crisford, as delegate of the Chamber of Commerce, reported that while he was sympathetic he could not see that the matter came within the scope of those matters usually handled by a Chamber of Commerce.

The Canadian Club, the Gryo Club, Oak Bay Council, Saanich Council, Esquimalt Council and the Provincial Government were the only bodies represented. A decision was quickly reached that, as there were no representatives from the City of Victoria, Rotary, Kiwanis and other organizations invited, that the meeting was not representative of business interests and it was left to the chairman to call another meeting should he find it possible to arrange a representative one.

Regarding distress among ex-service men, I may say that H. P. Thorpe and H. W. Hart of the Pro Patria branch of the Canadian Legion who were responsible for calling the meeting, although requested to do so, produced no evidence in support of their statements. I therefore have made careful inquiry from other ex-service clubs, social service and relief agencies and find there is an enormous amount of machinery for the relief of distress."

Mr. Crisford concluded. He was sure the people of Salt Spring were in favor of the ferry. The difficulty now was the expense of building slips at both ends. There were three people on the island and 121 automobiles.

BOAT IS READY FOR SALT SPRING FERRY

Expense of Slips Difficulty Faced, Commerce Chamber Told

An appropriation for a representative of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to send a representative to Salt Spring Island for inquiries regarding the establishment of a Salt Spring ferry was granted by the directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce to-day.

Archie Muir, president of the Junior Chamber, reported that a man had been secured who would put on a boat which would carry four or five automobiles. He was sure the people of Salt Spring were in favor of the ferry. The difficulty now was the expense of building slips at both ends. There were three people on the island and 121 automobiles.

MUNICIPALITIES TO GET LIQUOR MONEY

Midsummer Distribution to be Larger; Motor Fees Will be Allocated Soon

Officials of the Finance Department are preparing now for the midsummer distribution of liquor profits to the municipalities of British Columbia. Cheques covering amounts due to each municipality on the profits for the six months ending March 31, will be sent out around the first of July after final figures for school population are secured at the end of the public school term. On these figures the allocation is based.

Before liquor money is sent out, the annual distribution of motor license fees will be made. These will be sent out to the municipalities on the basis of census figures instead of school figures, in accordance with provincial legislation.

Municipalities' share of liquor profits will be larger this year than they were last year. The committee plans this is due to an increase in the general profits of the Government liquor stores for the last six-month period. Profits include the payment of beer licensees' annual fees.

S. Lanesater, charged with driving to the common danger on Rupert Street, near Beacon Hill Park, pleaded not guilty before Magistrate Jay in the city police court this morning, but was convicted and fined $20. A. Partridge and J. H. LePage were witnesses for the prosecution. W. C. Moresby appeared for the defence.

Malcolm McGraig was fined $15 in the city police court this morning for having his motor truck equipped with satisfactory brakes. A police investigation, following an accident in which a little boy was struck by the machine, disclosed that the brakes were practically useless. Inspector J. T. Boulton stated in court this morning, Robert Tilley, was driving the truck at the time, but the owner was held responsible by the court for the lack of brakes. The defendant said he had ordered their repair prior to the accident.

The A.Y.P.A. of Christ Church Cathedral presented "Step Lively," a comedy by G. R. Brisham, under the direction of Miss Elia Pottinger at Langford Hall Thursday evening. The hall was filled to capacity with a very appreciative audience. The cast is to be commended on the fine manner in which the play was presented throughout. Cyril Conerton as "Horatio Thimble" and Miss Peggy Felt as "Carry Arry" kept the audience in laughter with their comedy. After the play refreshments were served, and dancing till 1 a.m. completed a most successful evening.

CHIEF'S GRANDCHILD SCALDED TO DEATH

Two-year-old Child Falls Into Sizzling Water; Dies in Hospital

Although she was rushed from her home in Sooke to the St. Joseph's Hospital in this city, little Celine Planes, two years old, died last night as a result of scalds received when she fell into a tub of hot water. The child, when removed from the water, had been so severely scalded that her life was despaired of.

R. Robillard of the Belvedere Hotel, Sooke Harbor, adjacent to the home of the little girl, was quick to volunteer to drive her to Victoria. The child was living when she arrived at hospital here, but succumbed last evening despite the attention received.

The child was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Planes, and granddaughter of Andrew Planes, chief of the Indian reservation at Sooke. The remains are at the Curry and Son Funeral Home. They will be buried in the family residence at Sooke this evening.

CAR DRIVER LOSES FIGHT FOR LICENSE

L. N. Moxley Fails to Get In- junction Against Saanich

Application for an injunction restraining the municipality of Saanich from cancelling the stage driver's license of Lee N. Moxley, upon which argument was heard earlier in the week, was refused by Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court Chambers this morning.

John R. Green, who appeared for the stage driver, submitted that the Saanich by-law governing motor licenses was ultra vires in that it differed from the statute. The by-law provided that licenses could be taken away at any time, he said, the words "at any time" having been inserted by the municipality. He also complained that Moxley was not given notice of the sitting of the council when the action was taken. The license was cancelled on May 19.

B. S. Heisterman appeared for Saanich. His Lordship suggested that the application was one which might be carried to the Court of Appeal.

SEEKS DUTY CUT TO AID COAL INDUSTRY

Calgary Trade Board Wants Box Car Loaders on Free List

Elimination of duty and sales tax on box car loaders coming into Canada with the object of reducing the cost of mining coal in Canada to that of the present restricted markets, may be extended as far as possible was recommended in a resolution from the Calgary Board of Trade read at the meeting of the directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce this afternoon.

The Victoria Chamber was asked to support the Calgary Board in its representations to the Minister of Customs.

Box car loaders, said the Calgary resolution, are not manufactured in Canada, are not likely to be in the near future, and are only made by two manufacturers in the United States. They are essential to the proper and economical handling of coal mined in Canada. The present duty and sales tax increases the cost of each box car loader to approximately $2,400.

A committee was named to secure more information on the subject.

NORTHERN AREAS GROWING RAPIDLY

Pattullo Finds Marked Spring Activity in Prince Rupert District

Northern British Columbia is making big advances now with the opening of Spring activities in logging, mining and lumbering. Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, declared that on his return here from a tour of inspection of the northern coast, he found a big salmon season. Prince Rupert presents a spectacle of marked activity in all lines. The northern city is definitely established now as a substantial grain shipping port. An elevator in operation there is bringing wheat in large quantities to the port and ships to handle these shipments are arriving regularly.

OPPOSED TO SALE OF WILLOWS PARK

Committee Appointed by Com- merce Chamber Offers Report

The Willows Park is a valuable asset to the city of Victoria, and it would be unwise to dispose of it at the present time and more particularly for the price of $100,000 on terms or otherwise, Chamber of Commerce directors were advised this afternoon.

A report on the subject was presented by J. H. Stevens, Arthur E. Haynes and Atwell D. King named as a committee to investigate and report on the suggested sale of the park by the city.

Citing reasons the report points out that the park consists of an area of sixty-six acres, advantages and value of the park are numerous. Substantiated in Oak Bay. The improvements on the land are valued for insurance purposes at $74,000. The lands have been assessed at $55,000. The city has leased the property to an association, which from time to time carries on horse racing, for the term of five years at a rental of $2,100 per year, which runs alone approximately covers the taxes chargeable by Oak Bay.

NECESSARY ADJUNCT
Mr. King said the park was a necessary adjunct to Victoria. It was needed for exhibitions and events of that nature, and if the city parted with it, it would have to secure a similar area somewhere else, and such a piece of land could not be secured in any other part at the price which had been mentioned as the purchase price. Suggestions had been made that it be disposed of for a moving picture company. The committee favored encouraging moving pictures, and would suggest that it be leased at a nominal rent for this purpose, but not divided, the park would bring twice as much as the suggested purchase price.

the price proposed the purchaser would be getting something like a $40,000 bonus. Mr. King claimed in presenting figures on the revenue the park would bring, that the city charged up against it.

While Alderman Cuthbert Holmes agreed in part with Mr. King he did not believe it could be subdivided successfully. As a work it was necessary to the city, he agreed.

The report was adopted.

GROUP EXECUTIVE ELECTED FOR YEAR

Tourist Trade Group Elects Officers; President to be Chosen by Executive

Seven members of the tourist trade group 1927-28 executive committee were selected at the annual meeting of that body to-day, and the chairman will be elected by the new executive. The seven executive members elected were: W. M. Allan, H. E. Boorman, I. W. Aude, A. C. Humphries, R. R. Webb, C. P. Hill and Herbert Kent.

Mr. Humphries, last year's chairman, thanked the members for the support they had given him through his term of office and suggested that in order to keep the group active and working, new blood should be brought into the executive.

Charles Wilkinson and Ian Anderson of the Canadian Forestry Association showed three reels of interesting motion pictures dealing with Canada's natural beauties. Both men were guests of the group at luncheon.

MAY INVESTING IN CITY LANDS

Purchase of City Property For Building or Remodelling Leads to Brisk Sales

Cash receipts of $49,363 have been taken by the city lands department for the first four months of the year, it was stated at the City Hall to-day. The figures show a marked increase over the corresponding period of last year.

Payments on account of agreements for sale reached $25,629, with $4,716 from rentals, and the balance in miscellaneous items of receipts. April figures showed a rise of twenty per cent over the same month last year, with opening May business starting off at a brisk pace.

Investment buying has become a decided factor of the sales made by the city, owners buying properties with the idea of building or conditioning established buildings for purposes of investment. The growth in percentage of purchases for speculative purposes presages a steady advance in the value of property here, it is stated, and is one of the best signs of an active year ahead.

M. Kirkpatrick-Crookett, city lands commissioner, returned yesterday from Los Angeles, and will make his report to the council on Monday evening.

Westminster Eleven
Will Play Esquimalt
In Finals For Title

Second Division Championship of P.C.F.L. to be Decided To-morrow

Coulter Will Play With Dockers; Keenly-contested
Game is Expected

Another outside soccer team will be here to-morrow to help entertain the local fans. The G.W.V.A. eleven of New Westminster will voyage across the gulf to measure strides with the Esquimalt Dockers, pride of the local league. They will meet at the Royal Athletic Park with the prize for which they will fight will be the championship of the Second Division of the Pacific Coast Football League.

Esquimalt picked off the island end of the series by beating everything in town and then turning Cumberland over their knees and spanking them good and proper. The New Westminster team applied the strap to the best on the Mainland and now they come to Victoria to see if they can outdo the Dockers and make them bite their nails.

EXPECT GOOD SOCCER

The game should be full of good soccer. Esquimalt will be at full strength and will have "Casey" Coulter at centre-forward. It is hoped that Esquimalt's faith in Coulter will be justified for in his last game here he did not show anything. Coulter has a good toe and can shoot, and if he is feeling right will be a big help to the Esquimalt forward line. Against Woodville two weeks ago he was too closely marked by young Walters, the left back, to get any where.

Esquimalt will have the reliable Tommy Bridges in goal, where they are sure of good support. Joe Watt and DeCosta will be the full-backs, with Hosmer, Splers and Ward at half-back. The forwards will be Stewart, John Watt, Coulter, Warren and Wagland.

MUST HAVE CLASS

Not a great deal is known about the Westminster team. The fact that they cleaned up in the Mainland is ample proof that they have plenty of class and that Esquimalt will have no light task on their hands.

The Second Division of the P.C.F.L. was organized this year with a view to creating more interest in the game and testing the strength of the club which are playing in leagues other than the First Division of the P.C.F.L. which is regarded as the class of coast soccer. The Second Division was strongly supported and the play-offs were close. Esquimalt, the class of local teams, went through the local series very well and Cumberland were the best of the upper island eleven. Cumberland, however, were no match for Esquimalt in the play-off here.

The game, no doubt, will draw a large crowd of fans.

HORSE RACING

Baltimore, May 13.—Jockey Monte Edwards died today as the result of injuries sustained when he fell with Palmetto, of the Rosedale stable, in the fifth race at Pimlico. He was badly crushed and suffered a fractured skull.

Jockey Raymond Paternell was thrown and badly shaken, his mount, Corn Spirit, tumbling over Palmetto.

Calgary, May 13.—Preservator sprang one of the greatest surprises in the history of the turf game in these parts when he won the third race, a spring of five furlongs, at Cochrane yesterday, and paid the choice price of $17.60 straight. He was Preservator's first start since coming to Canada from Tia Juana.

The results were:
First race, half mile, 10 furlongs, $2.40, $2.40; Marjorie, $2.50, $2.50; Minita, $2.50, $2.50.
Second race, five furlongs, 10 furlongs, $2.30, $2.30; Dorothy, $2.50, $2.50; Jack Frost, $2.50, $2.50.
Third race, five furlongs, 10 furlongs, $2.70, $2.70; Gymnast, $2.30, $2.30; My Friend Pat, $2.30, $2.30.
Fourth race, five and one-half furlongs, 10 furlongs, $2.30, $2.30; Vanderburg, $2.30, $2.30; Miriam Wood, $2.30, $2.30.
Fifth race, five furlongs, 10 furlongs, $2.30, $2.30; Crest, $2.30, $2.30; Worth While, $2.30, $2.30.
Sixth race, six furlongs, 10 furlongs, $2.30, $2.30; Novice, $2.30, $2.30; Golden Ring, $2.30, $2.30.
Seventh race, mile and one-half, 10 furlongs, $2.30, $2.30; Strangler (entry with Homelot), $2.30, $2.30; Fireworth, $2.30, $2.30.
New York, May 13.—Jockey Laverne Fator scored his twenty-second victory of the Jamaica race track meeting yesterday when he rode Cheops home first in the Spring handicap for three-year-olds. Strangler won the six furlongs in 1:12 2-5, Cheops won without being extended. Raminous landing second money. Premier was third.

The race, worth $3,650, was the twentieth win of the meeting for the Ramocas Club.

Entries of J. E. Griffith finished one-two in the $6,000 Jennings' handicap at Pimlico when Single Foot nosed out his stable mate, Carter, to win by a length and a half. Senator Norris was third.

The sensation of the day at Pimlico was supplied, however, by the third race, in which Grierson, pay-

BACK AGAIN

SAN JOHNSON

After it was announced that Johnson, president of the American League, had been sidetracked the veteran bobbed up again at an unexpected moment and nearly ruined the Cobb celebration in Detroit. Johnson, who is noted for his battles with K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, has not let go the reins of the presidency yet, although it was generally understood that he had. Johnson, who has held the presidency since the league was founded, is getting up in years but still waves a strong hand.

Incogs Out To Run
String of Cricket
Wins Three In Row

Garrison-Oppose-Champs To-morrow But Will Have to Show New Form to Win

Two Other Cricket Matches Scheduled For Local Pitchers in Victoria League

Unless the Garrison display unexpected strength the Incogs, last year's champions and present leaders in the Victoria Cricket League, will mark up their third straight victory to-morrow afternoon. The Incogs are to be hosts to the Garrison at the University School grounds, Mount Tolmie, and the indications are that the leaders will annex another win.

The Incogs have good strength, both with bat and ball this year. They have won their two matches to date. The Garrison have nothing to their credit so far. In their first match two weeks ago a fire in the officers' quarters at Work Point forced a halt, and the match was wiped out a week they were defeated by Victoria.

AFTER SECOND PLACE

Victoria and Five C's, who each have a win to their credit, will meet in what should be a hard struggle for second place. They will play at the Jubilee grounds. Five C's have played but one game so far, their first scheduled match being washed out by wet grounds. Last week they traveled to Duncan and defeated Cowichan. Victoria were the first victim of the Incogs in the opening match of the season, but they won last match to-morrow will be between the Two C's and Cowichan at Beacon Hill. This will be the first appearance of the Two C's in league this season. They were unable to play two weeks ago owing to rain and last week they held a bye. To-morrow they will be paired with the local team, who have yet to win a game.

Albions hold a bye to-morrow. The Five C's will line-up as follows: Quinton, Captain; Butters, Muncy, Hurn, Pillar, Martin, Attwell, Galt, Wilson and Lea.

Tilden in Hard Game
With Young Dutchman

The Hague, May 13.—"Big Bill" Tilden and Francis T. Hunter, American tennis stars, yesterday captured two singles matches from their Dutch opponents, bringing their team play series this close with four victories and one defeat.

Yesterday's singles between Tilden and Diemer Koel, Dutch Davis Cup player, was hotly contested, and was brilliantly played by both men. The score was 7-5, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Hunter, who lost to Diemer Koel on Tuesday, defeated T. Timmer, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

SUZANNE AND BALDWIN PART
Nice, France, May 13.—Suzanne Lenglen's tennis tour of Europe under Baldwin's engagement has been cancelled.

In a statement to the Associated Press last night, Suzanne said: "My tour as announced has been abandoned, although I expect to fill many of my engagements."

ing better than 13 to 1, finished first in a field of eleven starters.

Green Briar Stable's Flat Iron won the Anchorage purse, feature at Churchill Downs, leading home Percentage and Rejuvenation in that order.

New York Teams Are Making Others Work
To Keep Up To Pace

Giants Lucky to Defeat Alexander, Who Pitched Best Game of Season

Error Caused Veteran to Lose in Eleventh Inning; Yanks Beat Browns

New York, May 13.—The pennant races in both major leagues to-day settled down to a grim pursuit of New York's two pace-making candidates. Displaying no visible signs of yielding to aggressive thrusts from their western rivals, the Giants and Yankees yesterday definitely established their right to lead the chase in both circuits by heading off two challenges from St. Louis. It required eleven innings for the Giants to subdue the Cardinals 3 to 2, while the Yankees shaded the Browns 4 to 3.

The Giants, as a consequence, today held a clear advantage of two games over the world's champions in the National, while a similar margin in the American separated the Yankees and second place Chicago.

ALEXANDER STUBBORN FOE

The Giants yesterday found Grover Alexander decidedly a more stubborn pitching foe than Jesse Haines had been the previous day. Although the veteran yielded this time to what experts here called "the best pitched game of the year," it was only through an error by Douthett that New York won. A dropped fly by the Cardinal center-fielder allowed Terry to sneak home with the winning run. The defeat endangered the Cardinals' grip on second place for the Pittsburgh Pirates shot up within a single game of St. Louis by beating the Boston Braves 8 to 1.

Pittsburgh tossed out the Braves at Boston, 3 to 1, a two-run rally in the eighth overcoming a one-run margin piled up by Boston in their seventh inning. In the seventh, the Braves made five runs, knocking Auldridge out of the box. Knucknoff and Wright, rival shortstops, had a brilliant day.

Hitting timely behind good pitching by Root, the Chicago Cubs beat the Phillies 4 to 1, and took possession of fourth place. At the same time, the Yankees pitched and batted Brooklyn to a 6 to 3 victory over Cincinnati. Vance fanned five men, allowed four hits and hit a double and a single, himself.

PITCHER DUEL
The Yankees-Browns game developed into a pitching duel between Herbert Pennock and his former team mate, "Sad Sam" Jones. Each allowed no hits, but the Yankees batted their way to the fourth and fifth, while Babe Ruth's double accounted for the deciding run. Jones struck out eight, including the first two men to face him in the first inning.

Second place fortifications were strengthened by the Chicago White Sox, who, a 5 to 4 victory over the Washington Senators, while Detroit, aided the Chicago cause by beating Philadelphia 9 to 1. Chicago had an uphill fight in the seventh, while Detroit had six counters off Ludolph in the first two innings and touched Dumovich for an additional three, while Ponder, although nicked for nine hits, was pulled out of trouble by his team mates.

ONE OF FAVORITE HORSES RUNNING IN KENTUCKY DERBY

BLACK GOLD 1924

FLYING EBONY 1925

DUBBLING CUBER 1926

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—Just one more day and the Kentucky Derby, North America's foremost turf attraction, will be run at Churchill Downs for the fifty-third time.

The hundreds of visitors who will be swelled to thousands by rundown tonight. The names of the fastest of the 162 three-year-olds nominated for the race will go through the entry box and the trainers will give their charges final workouts—short workouts—in preparation for the $50,000 event.

The Derby "dope" is flowing freely, but nowhere is there any unanimity of opinion as to the winner. It is not a "one-horse race" as was the case last year when the East talked Pommey and the West Bubbling Over.

Almost every one of the Derby horses has his own special admirers and you may hear Whiskery or Rolled Stocking, Ormand or Fred Jacobs, who made five hits in six times to the plate, was the batting star. Seventh and eight rallies by the visitors placed the contest on ice.

At Sacramento—R. H. E. 14 20 9
Los Angeles—14 20 9
Sacramento—6 15 2
Batteries—Wright and Haanah; Sandberg; Keefe, Singleton, Canfield and Seaver.

San Francisco, May 13.—Portland's wrecking crew cleaned on the Missions yesterday, making twelve hits count nine runs against three for the San Francisco club. The Beavers poured in six counters off Ludolph in the first two innings and touched Dumovich for an additional three, while Ponder, although nicked for nine hits, was pulled out of trouble by his team mates.

This Victoria Man Writes His Experience for Benefit of Other Sufferers

ION-A-CO Offices,
1113 Government Street,
Victoria, B.C.

Dear Sir,

I feel that I owe it as a duty to my fellow creatures to relate my experience of the value of your wonderful invention, the ION-A-CO Magnetic Health Belt. I have had no serious affliction or disorder so far as I am aware, but for four years as a result of a nervous breakdown and what my life has been an enviable one. What troubled me most was a shaky right hand which made it quite impossible for me to write with a pen, cramp in the calf of my right leg, as a result of which I could only walk a block or two at the most without resting. I had also lost control of my voice in a great measure, and while it caused me no inconvenience or concern, my pulse was irregular. Now, after treatment for a short time, my hand is much steadier and is daily improving, the cramp in my calf is relieved and I can walk all day without discomfort. My voice is once more under control and my pulse absolutely regular and much stronger than before. I am seventy-six years of age and feel that if your belt can work such wonders in a short time at my time of life, it should be part of the equipment of every home.

If Mr. Wilshire had been in search of the Elmir of Youth when he made his discovery he might well have exclaimed, like Archimedes of old when he solved the problem of specific gravity, "Eureka."

I enclose my card and will be glad at any time to give my personal testimony to anyone who may wish to have it.

LARGE NUMBER TO GO ON EXCURSION

Few Tickets Are Left For Trip to Seattle To-morrow;
Dancing on Board

A capacity crowd for the excursion to Seattle on the Ss. Princess Kathleen to-morrow is promised by the great ticket sale which has been made during the last few days. There were only a few tickets left at the C.P.R. office this morning, and it was expected that these would be sold before the vessel sails to-morrow morning.

The excursion is under the auspices of the One Hundred Per Cent Club, and will be the only one taken by the Princess Kathleen this season. The vessel will leave at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning from the Belleville Street dock, and will remain in Seattle five hours, sailing for the return trip at 6 p.m.

On Sunday, after returning from the excursion, the Princess Kathleen will commence the Summer schedule on the triangle run between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle. Her sister ship, the Princess Marguerite, will leave at midnight to-night for Vancouver, whence she will make her excursion up Jarvis Inlet. The Marguerite will also start on the triangle run on Sunday. During the Summer season the afternoon boat to Vancouver will leave here at 1.45 p.m. instead of 2.15 p.m. as during the Winter.

ORE SHIPMENTS INCREASING FAST

Stewart, B.C., May 13.—Sacked high-grade ore from the Big Mission is accumulating at the Stewart wharf for shipment to a smelter. The Riverside concentrating mill which started operations on May 2, is working at capacity of sixty tons of ore a day. It is a year's supply of ore blocked out.

The third shipment of concentrates from the Dunwell has left Stewart and is now in Vancouver. This third shipment of 216 tons brings the total now shipped from the new mill to 650 tons.

As a result of the increased output at the Premier Gold Mine, concentrates have been accumulating at the bunkers so fast that a rush order had to be put in for their removal and the steamer Ansox was sent on a direct trip from the Tacoma smelter for a shipment.

Preparations are under way on every hand for the opening of work soon on a number of properties. It is expected that the snow, which has been heavy, will soon be disappearing from the higher levels. From the first to arrive in the camp to commence operations on a new property will be Tom Robinson, veteran miner, who is going in to take charge of operations on the Adams, and is expected here next week.

Three Passenger Ships Dock at San Francisco To-day

San Francisco, May 13.—Three off-shore passenger liners arrived here to-day, giving the busiest day in some time for the inspectors of passengers and cargoes. Heading the list was the N.Y.K. liner Korea Maru, bringing 414 passengers and a large cargo that includes 1,717 bales of raw silk valued at $1,700,000. Among its passengers were several missionaries evacuating China. The other two off-shore passenger vessels that were the Union line steamer Makura, from Australia, with a full passenger list and the Ma. Odenswald from Hamburg via Balboa and San Pedro.

Caught in the grip of a strong tide, the customs boat towing tug Golden Gate got out of bounds yesterday and smashed into the side of the British steamer Plume. The damage, however, was slight with the Plume only receiving a few dent plates and the Golden Gate twisting her prow slightly.

Theodore H. Jacobs, Pacific Coast passenger manager of the Hamburg American line arrived here from Los Angeles to-day after arranging for the departure of the round-the-world liner Roon only receiving a few dent plates and the Golden Gate twisting her prow slightly.

The Dollar line President McKinley, originally scheduled to arrive here next Thursday, has been delayed, company officials yesterday announced, and will not reach here until May 23. She has over 600 passengers aboard.

Boys Reported Lost Are Safe

Port Arthur, Ont., May 13.—Harold and Sylvester Watson, reported lost on Lake Superior, are safe at Nipigon, Ont., according to a telegram received by relatives here last night. The youths left here last Saturday night in a small gasoline launch en route to Port Coldwell. Storms prevailed over the week-end and with no word from the boys it was thought they had perished. Inasmuch as the sixty-mile trip took six days, it is presumed they met great difficulties in making Nipigon, but details were not contained in the telegram.

TOURIST GROUP HAS HAD STRENUOUS YEAR

Activities Summarized in Annual Report at Meeting To-day

Work in promoting the influx of tourists to Vancouver Island and entertaining them during their stay in the district done by the tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce was drawn attention to by Harold Palmer, secretary, in his yearly report presented at the annual meeting of the group to-day.

The report was as follows: Since the last annual meeting of the tourist trade group, A. E. Humphries has served as chairman, the other members of the executive committee being D. W. Campbell, F. Waring, H. H. Beatty, P. R. Brown, H. Kent and L. W. Arde.

These members have devoted much of their time to dealing with matters demanding urgent attention and have worked together harmoniously during their term of office.

From time to time the members have assisted the Publicity Bureau in raising the necessary finances to ensure the continuation of the excellent advertising work being carried on by that organization.

Several of the members assisted the directors of the bureau in serving as hosts to a party of 125 members of the Portland Passenger Agents' Association, through which they made many new friends and boosters for Victoria.

Representatives from the group were appointed and given authority to render service to the 1928 Victoria Day Celebration Committee.

Consideration was given by your body to a proposal for the preservation of beaches for the use of the general public following which recommendations were made to the board of directors and conferences in this connection were arranged.

Acting in conjunction with the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, recommendations to eliminate the annoyance to steamship passengers by hotel solicitors were made to the company concerned.

The group having deliberated considerably upon the preservation of the scenic drives on Vancouver Island, the board of directors was requested to investigate the powers of the Provincial Government to restrict certain highways and prevent the destruction of standing timber on roadways.

The group co-operated in the suitable reception of a party of 200 United States railroad representatives who had been induced to include Victoria in their official tour of the American continent.

Acting in accordance with the suggestion of the group the City Council arranged to clean up certain city properties with the result that the appearance of many privately owned lands were also greatly improved.

The historic sites committee effected the erection of several historic views of Victoria in prominent locations. This committee also arranged for the removal of defunct signs and for the correction of grammatical errors upon prominent advertising signboards.

It is interesting to note that the formation of a boys' pipe band was proposed at one of the group meetings early in the year and that this band, through the efforts of some of the members, is now organized with full equipment.

During the summer months, the members made daily visits to the auto camp, conversed with approximately 7,000 tourists and thereby effected some splendid publicity work for this district. In this connection, the assistance of the local service clubs was sought and secured.

A committee received and suitably entertained a party of twenty-five C.N.R. ticket agents from Eastern Canada and described the points of interest which appeal to the traveling public.

Much time was devoted by committees appointed from the group, in conjunction with other organizations, to the problem of moving the J.R.A.A. clubhouse to a new location with a view to improving the appearance of the Inner Harbor, bettering the conditions of the J.R.A.A. and creating additional room for the berthing of steamers.

A considerable amount of time and effort was spent in urging the Provincial Government to preserve the timber and scenic attractions of Strathcona National Park, in order that the territory may eventually be converted into a pleasure resort. In this regard, much co-operation has been received from different parts of the Province and the matter now rests in the hands of the Government.

During the last twelve months three representatives of the tourist trade group have continued to serve on the Victoria Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee, making periodical inspections and attending many conferences.

Acting upon a suggestion received the group recommended to the Sidney Board of Trade that an endeavor be made to beautify the approach to the Sidney ferry wharf by planting flower beds and offering seeds for sale to tourists. This proposal was favorably received by the Sidney Board of Trade.

During the winter months your group again sponsored a series of weekly entertainments at the Crystal Garden for the special benefit of visitors to Victoria. These entertainments have proved to be of great value to the community, being a medium whereby strangers may become acquainted and resulting in winter vacations being considerably lengthened. In many cases information given by members at these entertainments has been chiefly responsible in inducing visitors to become permanent residents.

At the invitation of the Saanich Board of Trade, a large delegation from the tourist trade group attended a function of the former body in the interests of maintaining the existing good feeling between the Saanich Board of Trade and the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

During the past year, the trustees of the Victoria Auto Camp have continued to serve as dual representatives of the Victoria City Council and the tourist trade group, and are to be commended upon the business like manner in which the affairs of the camp have been managed.

Some consideration was given a proposal that a private club for men be instituted in Victoria and the management of the Crystal Garden latterly volunteered to negotiate with the interested parties.

The question of the establishment of an auto ferry between the Saanich Peninsula and Vancouver has been discussed to some extent and is still under consideration.

During the past year the death occurred of one of our esteemed members, H. P. Johnson, who had rendered valuable service to the community.

RAIN AIDS FARMERS; HOLDS UP OILING

Agriculturists and Foresters Welcome Moisture as Valuable to Island

Road Surfacing Delayed Until Highways Dry Out After Recent Downpour

Two days of rain, prevailing generally on Vancouver Island, were given varying welcomes in different districts. Farmers generally were delighted with showers which will ensure the quick germination of seeds, forestry officials counted a week at least off the forest fire season, but engineers of the Public Works Department chafed at delays in their present big road surfacing programme now in full swing.

The present moisture means a great deal to Island farmers. While plenty of moisture existed under the surface of the soil before the present rains started, the surface itself was becoming dry. The new moisture, wetting the newly-sown seeds of many crops, will stimulate their growth and make the development of seedlings already under way faster than it would be otherwise.

FOREST FIRES DELAYED

Thanks to the wet weather of this Spring no forest fires have occurred anywhere in British Columbia so far. This is a decided change from last year when at this time the Province found itself in the midst of a serious fire menace, and already had lost thousands of dollars in timber. The rain of the last two days postpones the commencement of the fire season and makes outbreaks on the Island unlikely for the present. In this way it means a big saving in the middle of their biggest programme of oiling ever undertaken in British Columbia. Good progress has been made in advance of the moisture and the return of sunshine will be followed by a new start of these operations.

Oiling of Island roads is being held up by the rain at many points. The fall is but the choice honours were in the middle of their biggest programme of oiling ever undertaken in British Columbia. Good progress has been made in advance of the moisture and the return of sunshine will be followed by a new start of these operations.

CHINAMAN LOSES CLAIM FOR DAMAGES

Action in Supreme Court Against Royal Dairy Company Fails

After an all day hearing the action for damages launched by Chow Wing Fong against the Royal Dairy Company Limited, for the death of his father, Chow Sing Lew, houseboy at the Empress Hotel, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Murphy.

Plaintiff alleged that his father's death in December last year was caused when he was struck by a motor truck belonging to the dairy company at the intersection of Government and Johnson streets. Defendants denied that their truck struck the Chinaman.

In delivering judgment, His Lordship said that the evidence was not convincing. He found that the deceased was not struck when he was crossing at the intersection. It is possible, though I view the evidence with a great deal of suspicion, that he did step off at the corner. But I think the evidence is conclusive that he was struck, but at some distance west of the intersection. And I think that the evidence points to the fact that he was going diagonally and not looking at all where he was going.

His Lordship said that he did not think that the defendants were liable under the circumstances.

"I think the driver had exercised all proper care," he continued, "and I think it was his duty to look back mainly, particularly on a night such as that was, with a heavy rain. My view of it is that the deceased was looking away as he diagonally crossed the street, and he had his head down and walked right in front of the car and nobody could prevent the accident."

Frank Higgins, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff, and W. H. Bullock-Webster for the defendant.

CHOICE OF FRUIT CENTRE POSTPONED

Growers' Leave Committee to Decide Headquarters Under New Market Law

Selection of a permanent headquarters for the control committee which will administer British Columbia's new co-operative marketing law in the interior of the Province this year, has been left by the fruit-growers to the committee itself, according to advice received here from the Okanagan to-day.

More or less deadlocked, the growers of the Vernon and Kelowna districts decided to allow the control board to choose its own office location. The various fruit interests are anxious for the selection of their own district headquarters, and have rowed down to Kelowna and Vernon, the two largest fruit centres.

Dr. F. F. Booth of the Bureau of Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, came here to-day to investigate co-operative marketing in British Columbia at first hand.

This Province's new experiment with marketing legislation is attracting such wide attention that Dr. Booth visited Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, at the Parliament Buildings, and secured from him all the facts of the system now in force in the Okanagan.

May 13.—The regular monthly meeting of the West Saanich Women's Institute was held in the Institute Hall on Tuesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. T. Haddon was in the chair and the minutes were read by the secretary.

Among the correspondence was a letter from Mrs. Robson, convenor for Women's Institute for the Potato Fair, reviewing the success of institute exhibits at the potato shows and asking that more institutes prepare exhibits for this year's fair.

A letter was also received from the U.C.C. with particulars of the "Occupational Courses" which will begin with the Fall term.

The treasurer, Mrs. W. O. Wallace, gave the monthly report, showing a good balance in hand.

Arrangements are being made for a home nursing course to be held weekly in the Institute Hall and any ladies in the district desiring to join the class are asked to send in their names as soon as possible to the secretary, Miss H. Maher.

It was decided to hold an exhibition of women's work in connection with the annual sale of work in the Autumn.

Mrs. H. McQueen was elected as delegate to the Conference of Women's Institutes which meets in Chilliwack on May 18, 19 and 20.

The president then introduced Mrs. J. D. Gordon of Victoria and an interesting and instructive demonstration followed in which several salad dressings were made, also a delicious fruit salad which was sampled by the members. A very hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Gordon who in replying spoke of institute work, especially the benefits to be derived from the conferences.

After a discussion the members decided that they would be unable to undertake the catering at the Fall fair at Saanich. Two new members were received.

Tea was served by Mrs. Haddon and Miss H. Maher and after a social hour the meeting adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McSweeney and daughter of Seattle and Miss Mona Doyle of Victoria are spending a holiday at the beach.

The West Saanich W.I. held a military five hundred party on Wednesday evening with seven tables of players present. The first prizes were won by Mrs. Overton, Miss Gladys Guy, R. J. Fraeand and M. Atkins with twenty-four discs.

The consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Haddon, Mrs. Wallace and S. Leo with seventeen flags.

Refreshments were served by the ladies' committee and a social time spent after the game.

Maurice Atkins and children of Ransano, Alberta, arrived on Wednesday on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Atkins, Marchant Road.

SALES TAX ARREARS MUST BE REPORTED

Penalties are provided for persons or firms who do not file this statement by the end of the month.

The filing of these statements is made necessary by the amendments to the sales tax law made at Ottawa, reducing the amount of the sales tax. Statements must be filed whether anything can be paid at this

LALIA

A Tale of the Days of Christ, by John Newpott
(Copyright, 1926, by Eugene MacLean)

The little elder breathed a sigh of relief. His friends settled themselves again upon the ground, and resumed a discussion that appeared to interest them deeply.

"What are they talking about?" Antonius asked, indicating the group. "The heavy taxes," Ezra said. "The burden becomes heavier and heavier, so it is scarcely to be borne."

He joined his neighbors. Antonius, seeking diversion got out his dagger, and by friendly motions at the Arabian, chief proposed a game. The tribesman watched him intently, as he tossed the sharp-pointed instrument, trying to make it fall into particular squares on the border of his mantle. Catching the idea, the chief joined in.

Soon they were deep in the pastime. The chief, after several skillful throws, drew out a handful of small silver from his pouch, and showed one of the largest pieces to ward the soldier.

Antonius scratched his head. He had no money, chief saw his dilemma, and smiled. Reaching over, he tapped the huge ruby that adorned the hilt of the soldier's dagger. Then he pushed all his money forward in a heap, and laid beside it his own dirk, his sword and a silver anklet that he wore. Disengaging from his wrist his broad golden bracelet, he added that to the pile.

Raising his eyebrows, he challenged Antonius. "My ruby is worth more than all that," said the soldier. "But never mind—a game's a game."

He made three tosses of his knife. Then, intently, he leaned forward to watch as the chief carefully poised his own dagger, and threw. The point missed the embroidered square on Antonius' mantle by a hair's breadth. The second toss went squarely in the center. He had tied the soldier's dirk, so far. The third throw was to be decisive—Antonius had placed the point in the centre.

The chief missed. Without a change of expression he pushed his money, his ornaments and his weapons towards Antonius, while the latter crowded with glee.

"I'll play you for your mantle and tunic," he proposed, pointing to those garments with his finger so the chief would understand.

The Arabian flashed a smile at him, but refused. Instead, he made a snap of his fingers and a flourish, he ordered his followers to give him their swords and lances, their daggers and the ornaments they wore.

They obeyed, and gathered more closely around the gamblers. Again Antonius made three casts. Again the chief followed suit—and lost.

The Arabian frowned. Considering, his eye ran over his four tribesmen. He reached out slowly, took the largest of the warriors by the wrist and pulled him forward.

With motions, he offered his follower as a wager against the heap of weapons and gold and silver that lay beside the soldier.

Grinning broadly, Antonius consented. By this time, the villagers had drifted to the side of the two injured men, and, stooping, they watched with breathless interest as the soldier and the chieftain cast their daggers.

The Arabian gave a sharp exclamation. He had lost once more.

SICK ABED EIGHT MONTHS

After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Could Do All Her Work and Gained in Weight

Melfort, Saskatchewan. — "I had inward troubles, headaches and severe pains in my back and sides. I was so sick generally that I could not sit up and I was in bed most of the time for eight months. An aunt came to visit and help me as I was unable to attend to my baby and could not do my work. She told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two bottles I could get up and dress myself. I also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. When I first took the medicine I only weighed seventy-eight pounds. Now I weigh twice as much. If I get out of sorts or weary and can't sleep I always take another bottle of the Vegetable Compound. I find it wonderfully good for female troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. I will be only too glad to answer any letters I receive asking about it." — Mrs. WILLIAM RITCHIE, Box 486, Melfort, Saskatchewan.

Antonius seized his newly-won slave, and made him stand at his back.

"I'm rich again!" crowed the soldier to the men of Jereed. "I've won an armory, money, and a warrior to serve me."

The chief's face was flushed with wrath. He jerked two others of his remaining men before the soldier, and gestured that he was ready to resume play.

He lost, and with a sort of arrogant roar, showed his unlucky fellows towards the victorious Roman.

Antonius shook with glee. The chief was savagely offering his remaining tribesmen. The soldier held up his hand.

"Too much," he said. "I need only one."

Reaching behind him, he drew forth the last two Arabians whom he had won, and with as graceful a bow as he could manage, presented them to their late master.

"It will be an insult if he refuses," said Ezra, breathlessly, watching.

The chief, however, did not refuse. His brow cleared, and he beamed upon his adversary. With much labor and pain, he rose to his knees, and stooping, laid his hands upon Antonius' knee. The soldier patted his shoulder.

The tribesmen who had been restored to their rightful chief were breathing heavy sighs of relief.

"But I'm keeping this fellow," Antonius, tapping the arm of the first Arabian he had won. "He'll have to be my legs, while I'm disabled."

His slave understood, and prostrated himself. Antonius busily selected the best of the weapons he had won, and bestowed them upon his new servant. One of the daggers he thrust into his own belt, and with many smiles, dropped the silver he had acquired in the Arabian's pouch, which Antonius bought from him with one of the coins.

Finally, with an expansive gesture, he returned to the tribesmen the remainder of the weapons. The chief, overwhelmed, kissed Antonius upon both cheeks.

"I'll go out to the desert when I am well," said the soldier to Ezra, "I shall find fast friends."

There had been a stir among the refugees, as the two men finished their game. Looking about him, Antonius saw Aaron and Jared had joined the circle.

The old shepherd stood, leaning on his staff, his heavy oaken rod swinging from his wrist, and a leather sling wrapped around his arm. His face was very weary. Jared had sunk upon the floor, as if exhausted.

"What new?" Antonius asked. "Hered journeyed through Jereed this morning, and word comes that he is full of wrath. The shepherd said, 'Men say that other troops have been of the village are to be sought and slain, all those who have fled.' He turned, and went to the fire. His townspeople, exclaiming, hurried after him."

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Lifters

Copyright, 1927, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
By HOWARD R. GARIS

"Dadecums, will you please get me a lifter?" asked Jingle, the funny little rabbit girl, as Uncle Wiggily was eating the last of his carrot pancakes at the breakfast table one morning.

"Get you a what, my dear?" asked Mr. Longears, who, besides eating, was trying to read the paper, listen to what his wife was saying and also trying to stop Tootler from blowing bubbles in his dish of turnip pudding all at the same time.

"I want a lifter," went on Jingle. "So do I—a red one!" added Jangle. "I'd rather have a green one," cried Bumble, a boy rabbit.

"And I'd like a yellow lifter," Stumble began to say, "only I don't want." And then he fell off his chair and everybody laughed. But you need not worry. Stumble, true to his name, was always falling or tripping. The beauty of it was he never got hurt.

"Please get me a lifter, too!" begged Baby Bunty, the little orphan rabbit who was visiting at Uncle Wiggily's bungalow. "All the children at school have them."

"What in the world are lifters?" asked Mr. Longears as he helped Stumble get up on his chair again to finish breakfast.

"They mean those toy rubber balloons," answered Nurse Jane Fussy Wussy. "You know the kind, red, green, blue and yellow—on strings. They lift themselves in the air like feathers, you know, balloons, do."

"Oh, so you call balloons lifters, do you?" asked Uncle Wiggily with a jolly chuckling laugh.

"Please get us lifters! Please get us lifters! Please get us lifters!" sang all the forty-seven little bunnies in a chorus.

"Shall I?" asked Uncle Wiggily of his wife.

"Oh, do anything in reason to stop this racket!" she laughed as she held her paws over her ears. So Uncle Wiggily said:

"Run along to school now, my dears, and when you come home I shall have a lifter balloon for each of you!"

With joyful shouts the rabbit boys and girls hopped to the hollow stump school. And no wonder the Lady Mouse Teacher had to speak to them more than once, to tell them to pay attention to their books. For they were thinking so much about the lifters that they did not study.

True to his promise, Uncle Wiggily hopped to the five and ten cent store after breakfast and there he bought a big bunch of red, blue, green, yellow and pink balloons, or "lifters" as his children had called them. But when he started home with the bunch of balloons he found the wind lifting them so hard that, more than once, the balloons lifted the bunny gentleman right off his feet.

"This will never do," said Mr. Longears. "First thing I know I'll be lifted up to the clouds. I know a trick. I'll let all the air out of these rubber bags of balloons. I'll deflate them and put them in my pockets. They won't take up much room when the air is out. Then when I get home I'll blow the balloons up again and they'll be as good as before."

No sooner said than done. And with the deflated balloons in his pockets Uncle Wiggily had no trouble hopping along. That is he had no trouble for a while, but after a time, all of a sudden, as he was hopping through the woods, the Fussy Fox jumped out and caught the rabbit. And not only did the Fox catch Mr. Longears, but the bad chap carried the rabbit off to his den.

Up to the second floor of his den the Fox dragged Uncle Wiggily and then the Fox barked three times.

"Now I'll telephone for my friend Mr. Wolf to come over and we shall have a fine feast," chuckled the Fox, looking hungrily at the rabbit's ears. While the Fox was telephoning to the Wolf Uncle Wiggily looked out of the window. It was too far down to the ground to jump with safety. But, all of a sudden the bunny thought of the rubber balloon bags, or lifters in his pockets.

"If I could blow them up with air again, tie the strings around the ends and then hold the bunch of balloons in my paw I believe I could jump out of the window and come to the ground so softly I would not be hurt!" whispered Mr. Longears.

Now it took the Fox a long while to get the Wolf on the telephone on account of the line being busy and the wrong number being given a number of times. So Uncle Wiggily had a chance to blow up all the balloons. And then, when the Fox had finished telephoning, all at once Mr. Longears held the bunch of balloons in his paw and jumped out of the window. And the balloons lifted or buoyed him up so he didn't get hurt jumping to the ground, and he ran safely home with the lifters for the little bunnies. And Oh! wasn't that Fox angry! I should say so!

But the little rabbits had lots of fun with their lifters. And if the egg beater doesn't shut the ice pick up in the refrigerator all night so it catches cold, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's splatter dash.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Calgary, May 13.—The Alberta Musical Festival Association will be represented at the Inter-provincial Convention of Music Festivals to be held in Winnipeg in 1928. This announcement was made following a meeting of the provincial executive held in the Board of Trade rooms here yesterday. This was practically the only matter dealt with at the meeting, which in other years had gone into the discussion of many matters dealing with the administration of the great provincial event. The delegates to the Winnipeg convention will not be named for some time.

BILLION IN ORE OPENED BY NICKEL

When the full facts are known in regard to the results obtained in diamond drilling the Frodo Mine of International Nickel, they are likely to prove a sensation, a statement made today by R. S. Mabey, head of the investment banking department of Pemberton & Son, says.

No official announcement has been made other than that it was found that the copper content dominated, and for this reason it had been decided to install an electrolytic plant to produce electrolytic copper.

Some time ago The Financial Post was informed that the diamond drilling had put 25,000,000 tons of 25 ore in sight. This seemed an incredible sum. Yet information coming to the writer now from a reliable source puts the figures much higher. Here they are:

Proven ore, down to 2,000-ft. with the deposit not bottomed, $1,000,000,000.

Copper content, 18 per cent or 300 pounds to ton, or $25 per ton on the copper.

Nickel content, about the average of the district.

Precious metal content, $15 per ton.

The platinum content of the ore proven is estimated at $19,000,000.

TRIBUTES PAID AT E. BALL FUNERAL

New York, May 13.—Mayor James J. Walker, fellow-Masons and friends in the theatrical profession joined yesterday at a funeral service in paying tribute to Ernest Ball, song writer, who died recently while playing in a theatre at Santa Ana, California.

Years ago Walker wrote the lyrics for the song, "Will You Love Me in December as You Do in May?" for which Ball composed the music. Yesterday the mayor described Ball as "a splendid man, a true friend and an excellent collaborator."

George M. Cohan, Irving Berlin and Julius Witmark, head of the publishing house that for years has marketed Ball's songs, were among the honorary pallbearers.

The body was shipped to Cleveland, Ball's native city, for burial.

LOCAL HOSPITALS VISITED BY LARGE CROWDS YESTERDAY

Surgical and medical wards, maternity floor, in which practically every room is filled, the operating rooms and the laboratory, where a number of volunteers in response to an invitation posted in the hospital, submitted themselves to blood tests for transfusion.

Throughout the afternoon the premises were crowded with a programme of music, and Miss Coffell and Mrs. Fuller also gave piano and violin numbers, adding much to the pleasure of both patients and visitors.

ST. JOSEPH'S BABIES

It seemed like Babies' Day at St. Joseph's Hospital, for following out its charming custom of previous years, the hospital invited all the babies born at the institution during the last year to attend for the very important business of having their photograph taken.

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Frank Sehl, the president, and of the Alumnae Association, together with Sister Superior, constituted the reception committee and welcomed the many visitors who thronged the building throughout the afternoon.

Every department attracted much attention, the maternity ward with its twelve new babies receiving particular interest. After visiting the various wards, the X-ray department, the new roof and the laboratories, the visitors were regaled with delicious afternoon tea, served in the sisters' community-room by members of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Mrs. S. P. Moody was convener, assisted by Mrs. McManus, Mrs. H. S. Henderson and Mrs. Vernon Thomson.

VERNON VILLA OPEN

Following tea, the visitors continued their tour of inspection to the little chapel and nurses' study hall, the laundry, then on to Osborne Court, where the nurses have their bright and airy quarters, and thence to Vernon Villa, which has been used for over a year for the care of tuberculous patients.

At both hospitals the many commendations expressed by visitors concerning the up-to-date equipment, the interest shown in the general air of spotless efficiency and the evident desire to ensure the very best care of the sick and suffering, again proved the wisdom and foresight of the originators of this annual Hospital Day.

MANY BEACONS ARE TO BE SEEN JULY 1

Night Electric Illuminations Throughout Canada For Confederation Jubilee

Ottawa, May 13.—On the night of the 31st anniversary of Confederation electricity will take the place of the old beacon lights with which those in the days of the Fathers of Confederation were wont to celebrate events of importance. From coast to coast of Canada, which is pre-eminent to day in the development of electrical energy, illuminating apparatus will be installed on towers, high buildings or other outstanding eminences, of a capacity which will throw the beams for miles around and light surrounding landscapes.

COMMITTEE'S PLAN

The following recommendations were made yesterday by the National Committee:

The towers of all Government buildings, such as the main tower of the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, should be flood-lighted and that all towns and cities follow the same specifications for the lighting of any towers they may possess, and that

PRIZES FOR AUTHORS

The Canadian Authors' Association has taken under its auspices a competition for the three best productions in English and the three best in French, on the subject of Confederation, the productions to be either in verse or in prose. The National Committee for the Celebration of the Jubilee of Confederation will offer gold, silver and bronze medals for the three in each language.

The secretary of the National Committee will receive contributions, which must not be later than June 22, 1927.

Misappropriation of Funds Proved At Assize Trial

New Westminster, May 13.—Charles T. Latham, land registry cashier, was found guilty last night in the assize court here on nine counts of falsifying books and misappropriation of funds.

A rider recommended leniency on account of looseness of the system in the land registry office during the time of the theft was added to the verdict and Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald promised consideration before pronouncing sentence at the end of the sitting.

ROUMANIAN INCIDENT

New York, May 13.—The Jewish Telegraphic Agency is informed that its managing director, Jacob Landau, was held up at the Roumanian port of Constantza while on his way back from Palestine, and that he was released through the intervention of United States Consul Palmer. The incident, according to the agency, was "in revenge for the Jewish Telegraphic Agency having circulated throughout the world press the reports concerning the continuous anti-Jewish excesses in Roumania."

FOR Acid Stomach PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

B.C. GRADUATES HEAR LEADER FROM OREGON

Dr. A. B. Allen Delivers Address at Confering of Degrees at Point Grey

Vancouver, May 13.—President A. B. Allen of the University of Oregon delivered the congratulatory address at the confering of degrees at Point Grey yesterday afternoon, when degrees were conferred on 204 students at the close of the academic year.

He began his address with an expression of good will from the sister nation of which he is a citizen. As one whose special vocation until he became president of the University of Oregon last October had been the study of world politics, he said the example of mutual understandings which existed between Canada and the United States was one that went to the root of all international relationship.

REAL UNDERSTANDING
While he believed in the League of Nations and similar efforts at international organization, he declared the spiritual understanding manifest between these two countries was the only safeguard which would make such organization of permanent value.

He emphasized how important it was that educated men and women should cultivate the "spiritual life," without which, he said, their technical training could be applied to little effective purpose.

POINTS TO LINCOLN
An exact definition of the term "spiritual life," he said, was impossible. The outstanding example of what it implied was in Abraham Lincoln, whose greatness was not attributed to his military genius, to his constructive statesmanship, to his mastery of politics, but to the deep resources of the spiritual life which gave him an infinite understanding of the aspirations of the human heart.

The spiritual life was essential especially to those whose intellects had been trained in universities for the battle of life, he said.

"You have been equipped to go forth and grapple with the problems of your generation," he said, "and if only you can get the vision that your labors are for God and humanity you will find your education doubly valuable and that life will take on a warmer glow."

Chancellor R. E. McKechnie welcomed the new graduates to the ranks of convocation and impressed upon them the responsibilities they should assume as men and women who had received special training for life's affairs.

H. D. SMITH ABSENT
Lieutenant-Governor Bruce of British Columbia was present to give to Harold D. Smith the Governor-General's prize, the supreme award to the student passing highest in the graduating class, but Mr. Smith, who had already left the city to begin work in his new vocation, was not on hand to receive the public congratulations of the university.

CONGRATULATIONS GIVEN
Two hundred and four students of the University were formally admitted to the ranks of the graduates. Kneeling in turn before the chancellor as their names were called the youths and maidens were duly "capped." A step farther on President L. S. Killick placed over their shoulders the hood symbol of the degrees conferred. Mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and friends from all parts of British Columbia filled the University Auditorium and congratulated the graduates upon the successful completion of their courses.

An intelligent working man has a vocabulary of 5,000 words, while an educated man should know 8,000 to 10,000 words.

Measuring 703 feet in length, the largest motor-liner was recently launched. It is an Italian boat, carries 32,000 tons, and has a speed of twenty-two knots.

ENGINEER TELLS OF ZONING PLANS

Town Planning Measure a Safeguard to Future Growth, He Shows

The effect of zoning a city to safeguard the rights of all classes of occupancy in future development was explained by J. H. Doughty-Davies, city zoning engineer, in a ten-minute address over radio station CFCT last night. Mr. Doughty-Davies said, in part:

"Zoning is not an attempt to create a new city out of an old one. By a zoning by-law everyone is given an opportunity to live and do business under reasonable safeguards, and protected from unreasonable injury by neighbors."

"As an example: suppose you had recently bought or built a cozy little home to the north of two vacant lots. In an ungoverned city anyone is at liberty to erect a large apartment block on those lots, overshadowing your home and practically wiping out years of saving."

"On the other hand, last October a foundry in Edmonton was compelled to abate a nuisance and to pay damages because the smoke and noise caused by its operation annoyed neighboring residents. If that city had been previously zoned the foundry would have been located in a factory area, where it would have been free to run at full blast. "Instances where zoning has been cited to show the value of zoning to every kind of use; apartments, stores, garages, and so forth; but the best proof of a pudding is in the eating, and it can be said that out of close on 500 cities on the North American continent not one has voluntarily repealed a zoning ordinance. In one or two cases cities have endeavored to enact laws in excess of their powers and have had them quashed."

"In Canada eight cities and municipalities have so far passed zoning by-laws, and many others have by-laws relating to uses, heights and area. Great Britain has 550 local authorities who have either adopted or are now considering similar legislation. In Victoria we expect to have complete zoning by-law ready in the near future. It will deal with the uses sanctioned in the various localities; the height to which various types of buildings may be erected; and the amount of open space required in each district."

"The uniformity of residential streets will be maintained by requiring all new houses to set back to the average distance of existing houses. Garages, unsightly at the street line, will no longer be permitted in that place of prominence."

"Sidelighting to a house will not be obscured by a new house being erected on the lot line next door. "Overcrowding will be prevented by allowing only a set percentage of the ground area to be covered by buildings."

In districts suitable for apartments the area requirements are lower, while being sufficient to insure the necessary light and air to any future apartment blocks."

"In the downtown and manufacturing districts the area requirements will apply only to dwelling-houses, with the purpose of preventing slum conditions."

OAK BAY TRAFFIC POLICY DEFINED

Revision of 1911 By-law Brings New Regulations

Revision of the streets and traffic by-law of the Oak Bay Municipality has just been completed by the Municipal Council and was finally passed at a special meeting on Tuesday. The revision of the by-law was the outgrowth of the development of motor traffic in the district and since the old law was passed in 1911, several of its clauses were unnecessary while in other sections it was lacking.

Following are extracts from the new by-law important to motorists and the general public:

Vehicles may only be parked six inches from and parallel to the side of the roadway. The placing of vehicles across the road, as practiced sometimes by fuel and furniture trucks is forbidden. Stopping of cars in the middle of the road, as practiced outside the Municipal Hall and certain stores, is forbidden. No vehicle may park with its left side nearest the side of the road.

PARKING

Parking is prohibited on and within fifteen feet of intersections, opposite lanes and private driveways, near hydrants on certain curves which will be marked with a middle line, on the near side of the street outside a building when occupied by a public assembly, within eighty feet of the junction of Oak Bay Avenue and Foul Bay Road, and on all cultivated boulevards.

Where car tracks are located at the side of the street, vehicles going in an opposite direction must stop twenty feet away from any street car discharging passengers. Many drivers do this already, but hitherto the practice has been voluntary. The Motor Vehicle Act only provides for stopping when a motor is proceeding in the same direction as a street car.

TURNING

When turning to the left into another street, vehicles must go around the centre of the intersection. In doubtful cases a mark will be placed to indicate such centre. Vehicles may pass in the middle of a block, but must not interfere with other traffic while so doing.

No car may overtake another on any section of street marked with a middle line.

No person shall, either personally or by any means, hinder or interfere with the traffic on or obstruct the free use of any street.

Vehicles with projecting loads must carry at the rear end of such load a red flag by day and a red light by night.

BOULEVARD RIDING

Riding or driving on cultivated boulevards is forbidden. This applies especially to persons on horseback at the Uplands and elsewhere, where boulevards have been damaged.

All encroachments on or obstructions to streets, the definition of which includes lanes, are prohibited, and provision is made for removing existing fences, buildings, etc., which encroach on or obstruct the storing of fuel on streets, including lanes, is forbidden. Fuel must be removed from streets within twenty-four hours after dumping, and if left overnight, marked with a red light.

No person may deposit material on or remove fixed material from a street, except under permit in certain cases.

CHILDREN'S PLAY

The use of catapults, and the throwing of fireworks or any missile on the streets is forbidden. Children may not play on the streets to the disturbance of traffic. Bicycles may not be ridden recklessly, which includes the carrying of a passenger. Sirens are forbidden, as in the city.

The new by-law is now in effect.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION OF PUPILS' WORK

Victoria West School Entertained in Aid of Home Economics Fund

Victoria West School was in holiday attire Wednesday when an "Open Day" was held, and members of the Parent-teachers Association and other interested friends of the children attended to witness the very creditable exhibition of students' work set out in the various classrooms. Flowers banked the teachers' desks and the broad window sills, and together with the pretty designs and colored books of projects and maps about the walls, made a very bright and pleasing picture.

At 2 o'clock an entertainment was given in which the young pupils of Miss Armstrong, Division VII, gave a spirited Indian war dance in striking costumes, this being part of the dramatic work in connection with the school. A charming violin solo was played by George Tait, medalist of the Victoria Musical Festival, 1921. The Junior Choir of the school, under Miss E. G. Smith (which won third place in the Victoria Musical Festival) sang delightfully two numbers, followed by choruses by the Senior Choir of the school, which, under the direction of G. H. E. Green, won the Arion Club Challenge Shield, and the silver cup presented by Mrs. James Dunsinuir for the best junior choir.

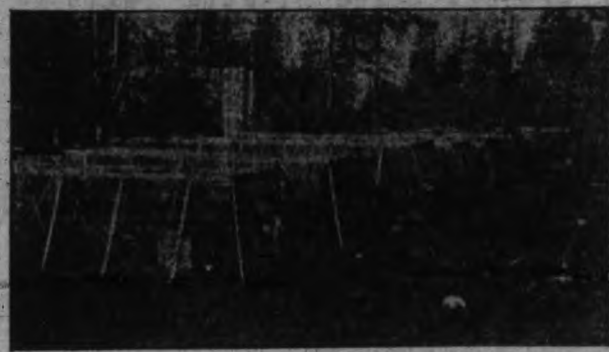

The pupils of Miss Jean Roberts and of Miss James, each gave a special entertainment in their own class rooms for the parents of the class—"Safety First" and "Betty in Dreamland"—little plays which were a dramatization of the health programme and fire prevention work being taught in the schools, were acted with good understanding of the subjects.

Principal Hunkin and his staff made the afternoon one of great interest and enjoyment to the visitors of whom over one hundred and fifty signed the register. The handsome trophies won by the school were displayed on a table in the main hallway, and besides the Arion Club Challenge Shield for public school choirs, 1927, and the silver cup presented by Mrs. James Dunsinuir for the best junior choir, there was also shown the cup won in two consecutive years by the Girls' Glee Hockey Club, 1926, 1927.

On Wednesday next the annual sports day of the school will be held in the Victoria West Park, and as an advance notice of this field day the pupils of Grades III and IV, had made a miniature representation of the park on the sand table in their room, with a tiny maypole and little figures about a grassy lawn and trees completed the pretty model.

After the inspection of the classrooms, guests repaired to the Domestic Science Building where, under the direction of Miss James, secretary of the Parent-teachers Association, a delicious tea had been prepared and was served by the following committee of ladies, assisted by the girls of the entrance class: Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Fallows, Mrs. Sangster, Mrs. Nicholson, with Mrs. P. J. Sinnott as general convener. The tables were daintily arranged with bowls of white narcissi, and at the guest table were Miss Crease, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Mowry, Mrs. Spence, Mrs. P. J. FARM AT ELK LAKE BREEDS FINE FOXES

Alaskan Silvers Preferred by Walter Hughes of Sanctuary Wood Farm

White fox-breeding on Vancouver Island is still in its infancy there are a number of farms in which the industry has got beyond the experimental stage and become firmly established. To such a class belongs "Sanctuary Wood Fox Farm, Elk Lake, where Walter Hughes is meeting with considerable success in the raising of Alaskan silver foxes. Four years ago, Mr. Hughes started as a novice with one pair of these animals; to-day his pens house eleven fine pairs, and last year the natural increase was 100 per cent, an unusually high percentage.

Mr. Hughes is one of the three breeders on Vancouver Island handling Alaskan silver foxes, the Prince Edward Island breed being the more popular.

His experience has shown him that the Alaskan variety is not so delicate as the Eastern variety, has more vitality and in consequence is much easier to raise in captivity. The pelts are a light silver in color, with magnificent brushes, and of such silky quality as to realize the highest prices in the market.

EXTRA LARGE PENS

An interesting feature of the Sanctuary Wood Farm is the collection of pens, which are unusually large, the majority being about fifty feet long and eight feet high. They are built with wooden floors, Mr. Hughes finding by experiment that these are much easier to keep clean, thus reducing the danger of disease to a minimum. The wire netting used for the enclosures was made on the farm, the machine which manufactures it having been sent specially from Belgium by Mr. Hughes's father, Brigadier-General H. T. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes recently built himself a house, so arranged that from its top floor he commands a splendid view of the pens. The farm lies well back from the road, and its position in a belt of trees not only insures shelter and privacy but also gives it its name of Sanctuary Wood.

8 1/2 Days' Saskatoon to Toronto Cool Motor all the Way

OF the many interesting and remarkable records made by motorists using Marvelube Motor Oil during 1926; the 2300 mile trip of Mr. E. F. Jones of Toronto, who drove from Saskatoon to Toronto in eight and a half days, offers substantial proof of the unusual lubricating qualities of this oil.

Mr. Jones left Saskatoon in his Chevrolet Coach at 8 a.m. July 1st, and arrived in Toronto at 11.30 a.m., July 9th. During this trip, he drove in two Provinces and seven States—Saskatchewan, North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ontario. Throughout the drive he maintained an average speed of 35 miles an hour to keep up to his schedule.

Before starting from Saskatoon, the crankcase of the car was flushed and filled with Marvelube and a supply of Marvelube was carried for use on the trip.

"Throughout the entire trip the motor ran cool and smooth," reported Mr. Jones. "Indicating that Marvelube was performing its task of lubricating a high speed motor of the Chevrolet type perfectly."

"Upon my arrival in Toronto, the car was sent to a garage for a 'once over' and the bearings were found to be uninjured from the long grind, and practically no carbon was found in the engine."

Few motorists ever call on an oil to "make good" against such odds as those encountered on this 2300-mile high speed grind, but Marvelube's sterling performance under the conditions is a true indication of its inherent quality.

Any motorist, regardless of the make or model of the car he drives, can be sure of satisfactory, care-free lubrication if he uses Marvelube in the right grade and changes oil regularly every 500 miles.

The impressive record made by Marvelube in this case, as well as in hundreds of others reported, is your guarantee that the oil which gave such phenomenal results under extraordinary conditions can be depended on to give full satisfaction in normal use.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

Marvelube MOTOR OIL

USED TO-DAY IN MORE THAN 200,000 CANADIAN CARS

Mr. E. F. Jones is a native of Toronto, residing at 212 Rose Park Drive. In his business he has had a wide experience with different types of motors and brands of oils.

His complete satisfaction with Marvelube, in face of the tremendous task to which he put it, is a strong recommendation for the "finest of all motor oils."
